Center

On Jan. 18, 2003, No. 17 Maryland downed No. 1 Duke, 87-72, in the Terps' first slaying of a top-ranked team in Comcast Center.

Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002 and has already provided six seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball, and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

The Terrapins' first public basketball event was its 2002 Midnight Madness celebration, which has grown to one of the premiere student events of the academic year. In its first season, 281,057 fans were on hand to witness Terrapin basketball games for a per-game average of 17,566 as the Terrapins finished fifth in the nation. The Terps went on to finish fifth in the nation once again in 2003-04, with a school-record 287,200 spectators packing the arena for 16 full sellouts and a capacity per-game average of 17,950. Maryland drew 299,391 fans to Comcast Center during the 2004-05 season, again setting a school record. The Terrapins' first public basketball event was its 2002 Midnight Madness celebration, which has grown to one of the premier student events of the academic year. In its first season, 281,057 fans witnessed Terrapin basketball games for a per-game average of 17,566, ranking Maryland fifth in the nation that year. Last season, 341,050 fans came to the 19 home games at Comcast Center, setting a school record for home attendance, and tying the all-time mark for per-game average at 17,950, 100 percent of capacity. Maryland ranked sixth in the nation in home attendance in 2007-08 and this season, will welcome its 2-millionth fan in only the seventh season in the Terps' sparkling new home.

The honored jersey numbers of 15 of the greatest men's basketball players in school history, as well as banners commemorating the 2002 national championship and the 2002 National Coach of the Year Gary Williams, hang high above the court in Comcast Center's rafters. The 2004 ACC Tournament Championship banner was added three years ago.

Twenty suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans. Maryland's student section, affectionately known as "GARYLAND," accommodates 4,000 of the Terps' perennial ardent supporters. Students fill the first 10 rows that ring the arena floor and a majority of seats on the arena's west wall – which at an intimidating 35 degree incline provides the Terrapins' with a unique home court advantage.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's nearly 750 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and Sprint Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pregame restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride.

Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

Gritty Terps claim 1st NCAA title
By Dave Marash
ATLANTA — The dark cloud that has hovered over the University of Maryland basketball program for most of the past two decades, in one way or another, finally lifted, in one way or another, finally disappeared last night. Maybe forever.
With a gritty 64-52 victory over Indiana at the Georgia Dome, the Terrapins completed their six-game run to the first national championship in the program's long and bumpy history.
Led by former Calvert Hall star Juan Dixon, who scored a game-high 18 points, Maryland (32-4) pulled away from a pesky bunch of Hoosiers in the final four minutes.

NCAA Final Four MVP Juan Dixon had 155 points in the 2002 tourney, the ninth-highest figure in tournament history. His five steals against Indiana were the most in a title game since 1990.
CHAMPION
The Terps' 32 victories broke the Maryland record for wins in a season. The Terps became the 15th team in ACC history to win 30 games.
MARYLAND BASKETBALL MEN'S NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 2002
Maryland's Baxter & Dixon duo is the highest-scoring tandem (4,127 points) in NCAA history to win a national championship. They are the 12th-highest scoring duo of all time.

Maryland's ACC Tournament title was the third in school history (1958, 1984, 2004) and the first for the Terps in 20 years.

Then-sophomore John Gilchrist averaged 24.0 points, 6.3 assists and 5.3 rebounds per game en route to Tournament MVP honors.

95	No. 1 Duke	87 (OT)

Maryland was only the third team in tournament history to beat the No. 3 seed, the No. 2 seed and the No. 1 seed en route to the conference crown.

SHIP TRADITION

The Terps overcame a 21-point first-half deficit to defeat NC State in the ACC Semifinal Round, marking the greatest comeback in the tournament's 51-year history.

The Terrapins, statistically the youngest team in college basketball in 2004, captured the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament title in a season where the ACC was rated the toughest conference in the nation.

BASKETBALL ALUMNI

Former men's basketball players are among the most devoted followers of the Maryland team, and continue their involvement each year through various events, including an annual alumni game during Midnight Madness festivities and an alumni golf outing with Gary Williams.

Among the numerous participants who returned for the past several alumni games and Midnight Madness celebrations include: Mike Anderson, Earl Badu, Jeff Baxter, Adrian Branch, Neil Brayton, Wayne Bristol, LaRon Cephas, Bob Cutler, Matt Downing, Max Etienne, Norman Fields, Keith Gatlin, Ernie Graham, Jerry Greenspan, Joe Harrington, Bob Hart, Dave Henderson, Pete Holbert, Mo Howard, Speedy Jones, Donny Judd, Matt Kaluzienski, Mitch Kasoff, Matt Kovarik, Cedric Lewis, Derrick Lewis, Tom McMillen, Dutch Morley, Jim O'Brien, Brian Palmer, Matt Raydo, Johnny Rhodes, Tom Roy, Harvey Sanders, Ron Siegrist, Kurtis Shultz, Duane Simpkins, Garfield Smith, Jim Spiro, Terrell Stokes, Stan Swetnam, Mike Thibeault, Jap Trimble, and "The Wizard" Walt Williams.

BASKETBA

MARYLAND MADNESS

The Midnight Madness tradition that Charles "Lefty" Driesell started in College Park in 1971 continues today, and arguably, nobody does it better than the University of Maryland.

Perennially one of the Athletics Department's most popular events, Maryland Madness always features a music and laser light show and performances by the Terrapin Spirit Squad, the Gymkana Troupe and the dance team. More than 15,000 screaming fans have turned out annually to the event to catch a sneak preview of the Terps during their annual intrasquad scrimmage.

Head coach Gary Williams has made his spectacular Maryland Madness entrance a tradition. He rode out onto the court in a Harley-Davidson motorcycle in 2003, and drove Donnie Neuenberger's "Fear the Turtle" NASCAR one the floor in 2004.

A Gary Williams look-alike contest was part of the festivities in 2004, which was a fan-favorite during the evening's program. Maryland Madness was televised live on Comcast SportsNet in 2004 and 2006.

BASKETBALL TRAVEL

The Maryland basketball team flies charter airplanes to nearly every game on its schedule. Pictured is a 50-passenger aircraft which transports the Terps from city to city throughout the season. This regional jet features two-by-two seating with no middle seats, and is the quietest jet in the world. It can cruise at 530 mph and up to 41,000 feet.

Charter flights make getting to, and coming back from, any destination easy and comfortable. This type of travel allows the Terps to be on campus and in class as soon as possible following road games, and overnight stays are minimized. The convenience and comfort of charter airplane travel allows for convenient, efficient, frequent service as well as maximized practice and study time.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Terrapins and head coach Gary Williams are active members of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C., community. The men's basketball team is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason.

In September of 2004, University of Maryland President C.D. Mote Jr. announced that Williams will co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's ongoing $200 million fund-raising campaign. Williams served as the commencement speaking at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business in 2004. He has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts, a program that is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. Williams also has worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events. For the past two years, he has served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than one million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceedings for Washington D.C.'s youth

In the fall of 2004, Terrapin players and coaches joined with members of the Greek community in raising $21,000 for Ronald McDonald House Charities as they took part in the Hoops For Kids event at Ritchie Coliseum.

FAMILY

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Under Gary Williams, the Maryland basketball program continues to place a high priority on education and the personal growth of its student-athletes. Jerome Burney has been named the recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship Award. The scholarship represents an endowment established by the Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation, and is awarded annually to three Maryland student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic, leadership and scholarship abilities.

Many former Terps continue to work toward their degrees while continuing to pursue professional basketball opportunities. Keith Booth, a four-year starter and 1997 All-American, graduated in 2003 after pursuing a professional basketball career that included winning an NBA Championship in 1998, and is now one of Gary Williams' assistant coaches. Former Terps Calvin McCall, Laron Profit and Terrell Stokes are among the recent men's basketball players to earn degrees from the University of Maryland. Maryland student-athletes all work toward completion of their college degree with the assistance of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit.

NBA SUPERSTAR STEVE FRANCIS

One of Terrapin basketball's most prominent alumni superstars in recent years, two-time NBA All-Star Steve Francis remains very close to Maryland's campus in the off-season. Francis, an All-American with the Terps in 1999 and the NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in 2000, maintains close ties with the Terrapin program and can be found in and around College Park during the summer playing pick-up, making public appearances, or in some cases, helping students in need.

Some of Maryland's students were temporarily without a home following a tornado in the fall of 2001 that swept through campus, but Francis was on hand to help. The NBA superstar did his part to aid in local relief efforts by offering a free meal to the near-700 students who reside in the University Courtyard apartments, which had been rendered unsafe after the disaster. Nearly 110 students got word of Francis' dinner and were in attendance at the UM Golf Course banquet facility. Francis joined the group for dinner, remarking to the group that he remembered people supporting him while he was a Maryland student and it was a small way that he could give back to those who helped him.

Maryland basketball games have become a loud and boisterous experience with capacity crowds since Gary Williams took over as head coach for the 1989-90 season. The Terrapins boast one of the most active and enthusiastic crowds in the country, which has helped carry the Maryland program to two Final Four appearances, the 2002 national championship, the 2004 ACC title and record-breaking attendance in each of the last six seasons at Comcast Center.

Maryland's home attendance numbers have ranked at least eighth in the nation in each of the last six seasons. After shattering all previous records in Comcast Center's first season with an overall attendance of 281,057 (average of 17,566), Maryland eclipsed that mark with 16 full sellouts in 2003-04 when it drew a per-game average of 17,950 to home games.

In 2007-08, Maryland set a school record when 341,050 fans came to see Maryland basketball games, averaging 100 percent of capacity for the second time in Comcast Center history. Over the last six years, 1,820,275 have watched the Terrapins in their sparkling arena, an average of 17,336 each game.

After averaging 13,377 fans and ranking 20th in the country in 1998, the Terps set a then-school record with a 14,474 average in 1999 while ranking 15th nationally. In 2002, Cole Field House's final season, Maryland continued to draw capacity numbers, averaging 14,166 fans and ranking 17th. The Terps drew 14,058 fans and ranked 18th in 2001. Those totals were only eclipsed by the Terps' move to Comcast Center, which ranks as the second-largest on-campus arena in the ACC.

GAMEDAY AT

For the past nine seasons, the Terps have set school records and ranked in the top 10 nationally in overall attendance, home and away. Maryland eclipsed its own overall record in six straight seasons and has played before at least 400,000 fans in 10 consecutive seasons.

Maryland's home attendance average hit full capacity of 17,950 in 2007-08, matching the school-record mark set in 2003-04. Terrapin basketball continues to be one of the toughest tickets in town as fans flock to the $125 million, 17,950-seat Comcast Center.

Maryland has combined to fill its home arena to more than 96 percent capacity since the 1993-94 season.

More than 3.5 million people have watched men's basketball in College Park over the last 15 seasons, as the Terps have forged one of the most consistent and animated home crowds in the nation. The Terps own a 199-36 (.847) home record in the last 15 seasons, with perfect marks in 2002 (15-0) and 1995 (16-0).

During Gary Williams' tenure as head coach, the Terps have achieved double-digit home victories in 18 out of 19 seasons.

ARYLAND

ACC AND THE RPI

The Atlantic Coast Conference has been the top-rated conference in the nation in four of the last five years, earning the top spot again in 2007-08. In addition to 2004, 2005, 2007 and 2008, the ACC rated first for three consecutive seasons between 1996 and 1998.

ACC SETS ATTENDANCE MARK

For the third consecutive year, the ACC surpassed the 2.2 million mark in basketball attendance, with the 12 league teams totaling 2,355,822 over 203 regular-season games and six tournament sessions. Maryland was sixth in the nation with an average of 17,950 fans per home game.

ASSOCIATED PRESS POLLS REFLECT ACC STRENGTH

With Maryland's No. 1 ranking in the final USA Today/ESPN poll in 2002, the ACC became the first conference in history to have two different teams finish the season ranked No. 1 in the two major polls. Duke finished the season as the top-ranked team in the Associated Press poll and helped the ACC become the first league in NCAA history to finish No. 1 in the final AP poll in consecutive seasons.

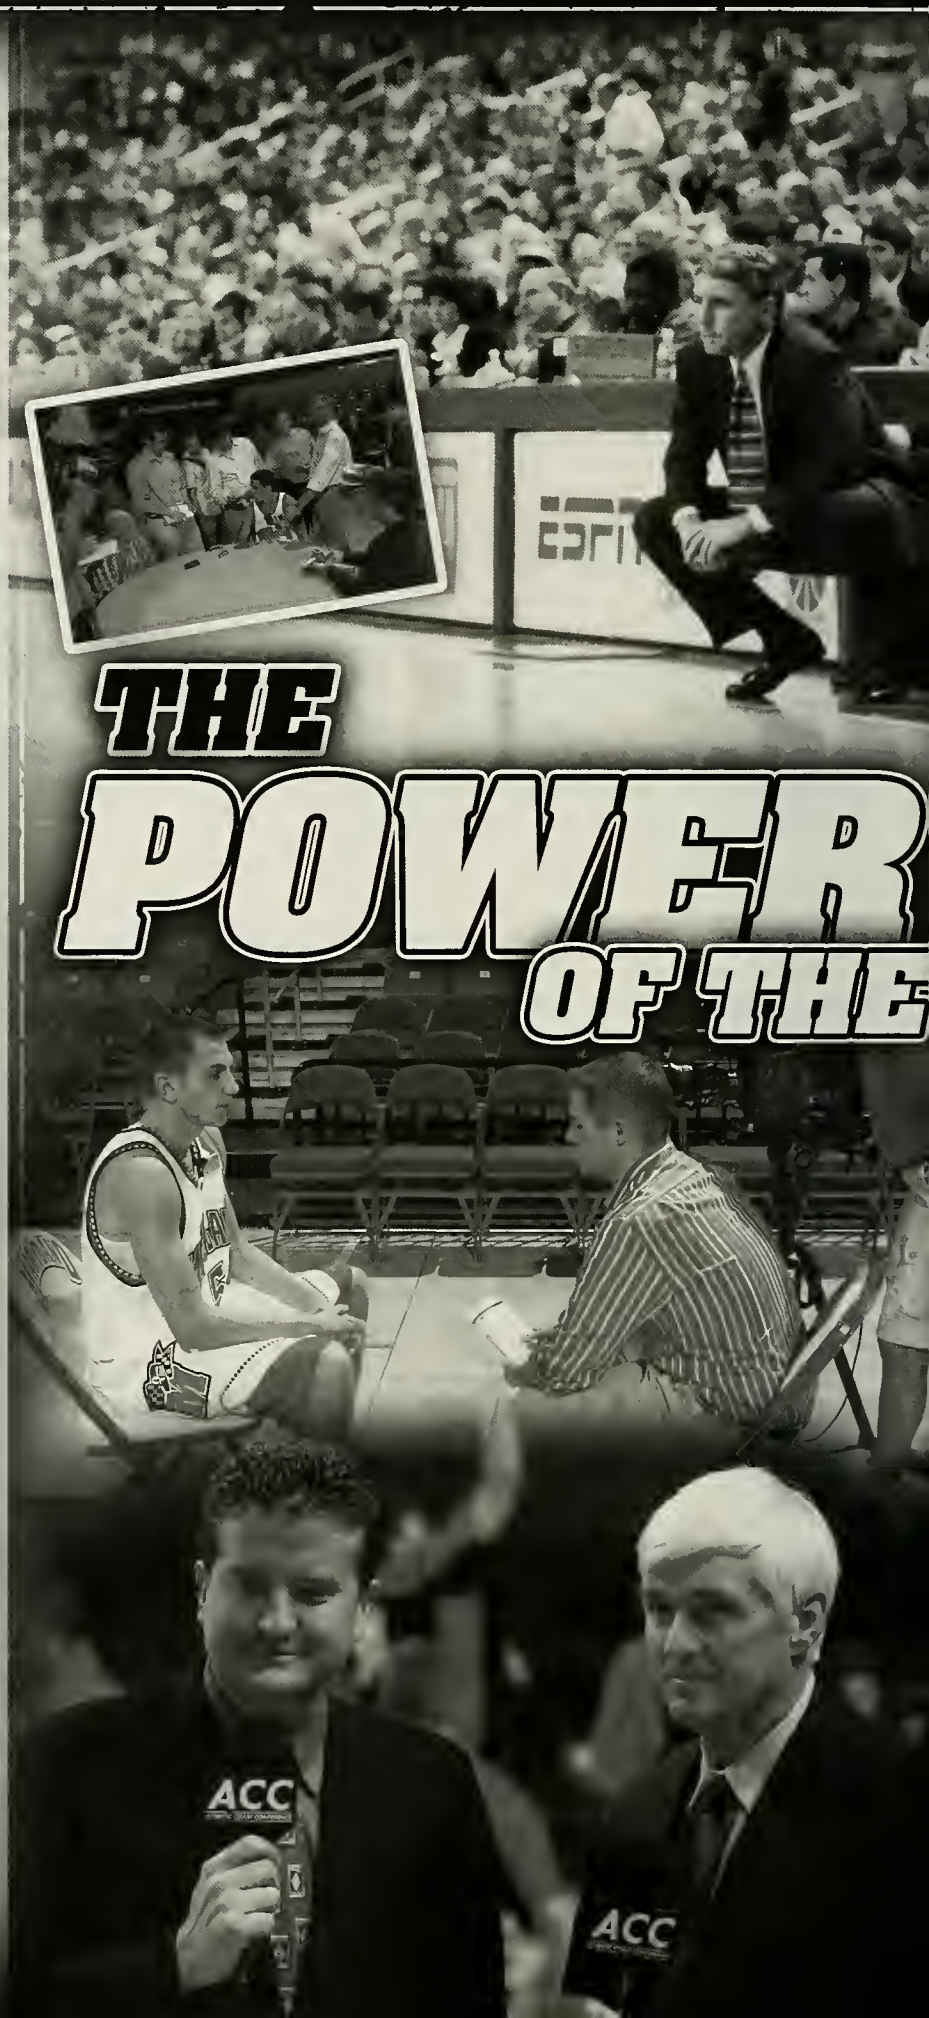
ACC UNPRECEDENTED IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL

The ACC became the first conference in history to have seven teams ranked in the Associated Press poll during two consecutive weeks during the 1997-98 season. Maryland, North Carolina, Duke, Florida State, Clemson, Wake Forest and Georgia Tech were each ranked in the AP polls of Dec. 1 and 8. The ACC reached unprecedented success in the AP poll in 2000-01, with five different teams ranked in the Top 25 from start-to-finish: Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia and Wake Forest. The ACC has had at least three teams in the final AP poll in 26 of the last 29 years, including a national-best six teams in 2003. Seven of the 12 teams in the ACC were ranked at some point during the 2007-08 season.

ACC IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

In terms of success, the Atlantic Coast Conference is unrivaled in the history of the NCAA Tournament. With a 329-164 (.667) mark, the ACC is the winningest conference in NCAA Tournament history.

■ Over the last eight years (since 2001), the ACC leads all conferences with seven Final Four teams – ACC (7), Big 12 (6), Big Ten (5), Pac-10 (4), Conference USA (3), SEC (3), Big East (3), Colonial (1).



■ Since 1985, the ACC has made 22 Final Four appearances, with the Big Ten in second with 16. The ACC has had at least one Final Four team in 17 of the last 21 years and in 22 of the last 28.

■ Since the NCAA Tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985, the ACC has the most NCAA Tournament wins (231), the best winning percentage (.669), the most Sweet Sixteen appearances (63) and the most teams (34) in a regional final.

■ Since 1981, four different ACC schools have won a total of eight NCAA titles, three more than any other conference. Since 1981, six different ACC schools have made a total of 27 Final Four appearances, 10 more than any other conference.

■ Eleven of the 12 ACC teams have made at least one NCAA Tournament appearance over the last four seasons.

■ In 2004, the ACC was the first conference in NCAA Tournament history to have five teams – Duke (#1), Georgia Tech (#3), NC State (#3), Maryland (#4), Wake Forest (#4) – seeded fourth or higher.

ACC Television

■ The 2008-09 ACC men's basketball schedule is highlighted by a record 298 television appearances by the league's 12 member schools, including on all-time high 173 appearances on national television networks. It marks the fifth straight year the ACC has had more than 250 television appearances.

■ ACC teams are scheduled to make an ACC-record 173 appearances on national television networks, including 120 spots on ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU, 35 on Fox Sports Net, 10 on ABC, seven on CBS and one on CBS College Sports.

■ Fox Sports Net and affiliates will televise 19 Sunday afternoon and evening games on a national basis. This season, 14 of the 19 FSN Sunday games are conference matchups.

■ Headlining the league's non-conference schedule is the 10th annual ACC/Big Ten Challenge on Dec. 1-3, pairing two of the nation's premier conferences in a regular-season challenge series. Last year, the ACC won the Challenge for the ninth straight time, winning eight of the 11 games played. The ACC (.642) and the Big Ten (.615) are the two winningest conferences in NCAA Tournament history.

■ This season, 92 of the league's 96 conference games are scheduled to be televised.

- Playing for the Terps means playing the nation's fourth-largest media market.
- The Terps are covered extensively by two of the nation's top 10 newspapers on a daily basis: the Washington Post and the Baltimore Sun.

ACC basketball will receive extensive live television coverage during the 2008-09 season, with the ESPN networks, Fox Sports Net, CBS and ABC combining for 173 appearances. Counting regional broadcasts, 298 ACC contests will be televised this season.

ESPN, which originated its first-ever sports broadcast from the University of Maryland in 1979, has been a regular visitor to College Park. ESPN's College Basketball GameDay picked Comcast Center as one of eight sites to broadcast its live show in 2005.

ACC basketball is featured weekly during the season on "All-Access" show on regional networks.

Every major television network - ABC, NBC, CBS, and Fox – has a major news-gathering affiliate in both Baltimore and Washington, D.C. No university in the East boasts eight major news outlets within a 35-mile radius of its campus except the University of Maryland. Regional cable broadcasts power Comcast SportsNet and local cable outlets provide the Terps with a TV news presence that is unmatched in college basketball.

Maryland Alumni in the Media

Maryland alumni are familiar faces to sports fans across the nation. Bonnie Bernstein of CBS, Len Elmore, Scott Van Pelt, Bonnie Bernstein, Len Elmore, Pam Ward and Tim Kurkjian of ESPN and Jimmy Roberts of NBC are all Terrapin alumni who have had outstanding broadcasting careers.

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 127 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2007, 86 programs rank in the top 25 nationally and a school-record 31 programs were in the top 10 in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate ranking of top public universities.

Specifically, the University of Maryland's Smith School of Business was ranked 21st, while the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 25th. In graduate school rankings, the College of Education, the Clark School of Engineering, the College of Information Studies and the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences each had specialties listed among the top 25 in the nation.

NO BETTER

High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

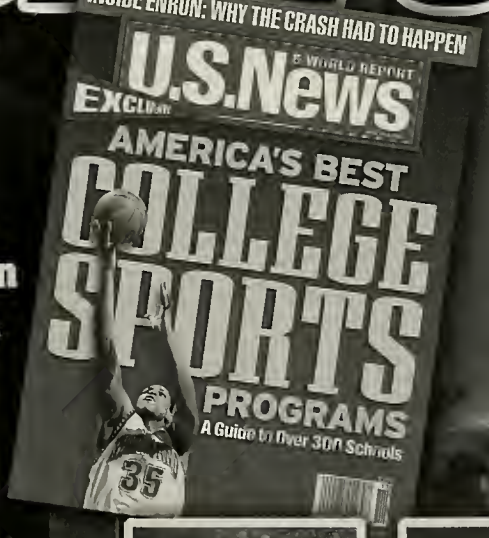
Terps Athletics Tops In Management, Innovation

The University of Maryland athletics department won the inaugural collegiate PRISM Award given by the the University of Massachusetts Department of Sports Management. The award honors demonstrated excellence and innovation in sports management of NCAA Division I-A and I-AA institutions.



IT'S ALL HERE

beyond the University of Maryland campus.

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of College Park. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttle buses serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

BALTIMORE

The 12th-largest city in the United States is often referred to as the "Charm City." Located just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland, its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its National Aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports.

ANNAPOLIS

The state capital of Maryland lies just 30 miles east of the University of Maryland. Long called the "sailing capital of the United States," Annapolis is located at the mouth of the Severn River on the Chesapeake Bay. The historic downtown area is known for its wonderful eating and shopping opportunities. There are few places in the world that rival the Chesapeake Bay area for its appealing qualities.

Season Outlook

A YOUNG TERPS SQUAD LOOKS TO TAKE THE NEXT STEP WITH AN NCAA TOURNAMENT BID

Basketball is just like anything else in a collegiate setting – it's all about the maturation process and making the most of your opportunity to learn.

For the University of Maryland men's basketball team, Gary Williams is hoping his talented but inexperienced group of six freshmen and three sophomores from last season have turned into six sophomores and three juniors who are now talented and experienced.

Williams' 20th season at his alma mater will feature one of the top backcourts in the Atlantic Coast Conference, with a wealth of explosive talent, ball-handling and a flair for the exciting. It will also feature a frontcourt with talent but youth that will need to emerge after the graduation of James Gist and Jambalo Osby.

For this team to be playing deep into March, Williams and his staff will be molding and guiding this group into the type of squad that will be better than the sum of its parts, and better in March than it was in November. Basically, the type of team that has made Gary Williams one of the most respected coaches in the nation for all of his 31 years in the college game.

"Last year, we had probably the most freshmen we've ever had here," Williams says of his 19-15 team that tied for fifth in the ACC with an 8-8 league mark. "We didn't have a big bank of experience to call on when things got tough.

"We lost some games in the second half that I thought we could have won. Hopefully, that experience will translate into understanding how hard we have to work, how important it is to execute.

"These things usually come with experience, so hopefully they will," he says. "We're young in terms of having one senior in Dave Neal. But in terms of experience, especially in the backcourt, we're an experienced team.

"When you have the minutes played of Eric Hayes, Greivis Vasquez and Landon Milbourne, that gives you three perimeter players who went through every tough situation last year. Part of being a good player is to be able to give those experiences to those players who don't have that amount of experience. Hopefully, that will happen."

Part of the excitement in College Park for the 2008-09 season will be living the experience of Williams' 20th season as the Terrapins head coach. The future Hall of Fame coach enters the year as one of only seven active coaches with 600 wins at the Division I level. He begins the season only three victories away from posting his 400th at Maryland.

Long known as a teacher of the game who brings his teams along over the course of a year, Williams knows the success of this group of Terrapins is somewhat dependent on its ability to grow during the season.

Greivis Vasquez

"I think the backcourt is our strength. Greivis made second team All-ACC as a sophomore. Eric was hurt in a key part of the schedule, but came back and played pretty well after that. I think those two guys, you have to look at them to be your leaders."

- GARY WILLIAMS

Eric Hayes

"I think a key will be the development of our inside players," says Williams. "That will be a gradual thing during the year. It's going to take some time.

"But at the same time, our perimeter people are good enough to get us through that tough stretch early. On any good team, the collection of players determines how good you are. It's not one player playing well, it's how well we can play together.

"I think it's especially true this year with only one senior. But we've got guys who've got some experience and who know what it takes to win. We beat the number-one team in the country last year. But we had some games at home we should have won that we lost in the second half. So hopefully, those two experiences will help."

Backcourt

Depth, experience and talent abound on the Maryland perimeter this season. Last year's starting duo of Greivis Vasquez and Eric Hayes return a year stronger, a year wiser and a year better.

Vasquez and Hayes finished first and sixth in the ACC last year in assists per game, and also finished second and eighth, respectively, in the league in minutes per game. They will be backed by sophomores Adrian Bowie and Cliff Tucker, along with last year's Player of the Year in Baltimore, freshman Sean Mosley.

"I think the backcourt is our strength," says Williams. "Greivis made second team All-ACC as a sophomore. Eric was hurt in a key part of the schedule, but came back and played pretty well after that. I think those two guys, you have to look at them to be your leaders.

"Adrian and Cliff also played key minutes for us, especially when Eric was out. So I expect them to go from where they left off.

"Then we have an interesting player in Sean Mosley. He's a very skilled and experienced player for a freshman. I think he's going to have some impact in our program. He's 6-4, but has ball-handling skills, so we'll see how he fits in."

Vasquez has recovered from off-season ankle surgery and returns as the Terrapins' leader from last year in scoring (17.0 points per game, fifth in the ACC) and assists (6.8 per game, seventh in the nation). His entertaining, electric style has made him a favorite of Terrapin fans in only two seasons in College Park.

"Greivis has tremendous love of the game," says Williams. "It's very important for him that we win. Any great player has that passion and attitude about winning. It's hard to put that into a player.

"Greivis has that, and hopefully it's contagious. He's unique in that he's 6-5, a very good ball-handler and sees the court very well. He's worked hard to become a better outside shooter over the summer. He can be a great leader because of his passion for the game."

Hayes has been a steadying influence in the backcourt during his two seasons, earning more than 1,800 minutes in those two years. An outstanding shooter, he has averaged .392 shooting from 3-point range and .875 from the free throw line in his career thus far. He is a guard who takes advantage of the court sense gained from playing for his father while at Potomac High School in nearby Woodbridge, Va.

Bowie played his best basketball at the end of the season last year, taking full advantage of the learning process. He started both games in the NIT last year and averaged 16.5 minutes per game over Maryland's final six outings. Two of his five games in double figures in points came during that stretch. He is also a capable ball-handler, committing only eight turnovers in the Terps' final 13 games last year.

Tucker is another of Maryland's bigger guards at 6-6, and has an ability to both be an effective scorer (.491 shooting from the floor last year) and a solid floor player. He picked up 74 rebounds, 44 assists, 11 blocks and 21 steals in 32 games played last year, averaging just under 16 minutes per game. He is an athletic player who was a two-sport standout in basketball and football at Chapin High School in El Paso, Texas.

Mosley comes to Maryland with outstanding credentials after a standout career at St. Frances Academy in Baltimore. He was the 2008 Gatorade Player of the Year in Maryland and finished his career as the second-leading scorer in Maryland high school history with 2,933 points. He averaged 24.2 points and 7.5 rebounds as a senior, just after posting averages of 23.5 points and 9.8 rebounds as a junior.

Those five guards will give Williams and his staff a number of options in terms of different combinations and configurations for the offense and defense this season.

"There are a lot of ways to play for us this year," says Williams. "The old two-forwards-and-a-center thing has kind of gone the way of the two-hand set shot. It'll be interesting. I'm looking forward to practicing. I know who the good players are, it's a matter of trying to get as many of them on the court at the same time.

"I've always liked to press. Our depth in the backcourt probably will allow us to press more than we have in the last few years."

Landon Milbourne

Frontcourt

Maryland opens the 2008-09 season with an experienced hand at small forward in Landon Milbourne. The 6-7 forward started 29 games for the Terrapins as a sophomore and improved his minutes from 4.8 to 24.7 and his scoring average from 1.0 to 8.2 between his freshman and sophomore years. He also knocked down 22 3-pointers last year and had 14 games in which he scored in double figures.

Milbourne is another of the players Williams is counting on to turn their on-court experience from a year ago into improved and more effective play this season.

As much as Vasquez and Hayes emerged as a formidable duo in the backcourt last year, that was similar to the impact that seniors James Gist and Bambale Osby had on the front line for the Terrapins a season ago.

Those two players finished second and third in the ACC in blocked shots last year, putting Maryland fifth in the nation as a team in that category. After a tremendous four-year career in College Park, Gist was drafted on the second round of the 2008 NBA Draft by San Antonio. Osby was another of the league's most improved players by the end of last season, providing an anchor defensively and a weapon on the blocks offensively for the Terps.

But with graduation comes opportunity in college basketball, and now is the time for Jerome Burney, Braxton Dupree, Dave Neal and Steve Goins to turn the chance to play into effective minutes for the Terrapins.

"This is one of the things we have to find out in the preseason, exactly where players like Jerome and Braxton are in terms of their development," says Williams. "Each guy, basically, has had a year to play, now they have to step up.

"You have guys like James Gist and Bambale Osby, naturally they're not going to get as many minutes as those two guys. Now they're gone, so here comes these two. We'll have to see what they can do, along with Dino Gregory."

Neal, a 6-7 forward, is the lone senior on the squad and has used his intelligence and strength to his advantage, according to Williams. He has seen limited time in his three seasons due to injuries, but has played key minutes in his 62 games.

Dave Neal

Jerome Burney

"Dave has quietly been in some big situations in games," says Williams. "People overlook the importance of that sometimes. His experience will be important for our younger inside players, especially early in the season.

"Dave knows how to play. He's a very cerebral player in terms of knowing what we're trying to accomplish and being able to pass the ball. At that 6-7 size, he's very strong. He could play valuable minutes for us as the year goes along."

Burney is beginning his third season in the program, having redshirted the 2006-07 season due to a preseason injury. He saw improved playing time late in the season, appearing in each of the Terps' final seven games of the season. he posted five rebounds in 12 minutes at Miami and had six points and four blocks in 16 minutes against Clemson in March.

Dupree is a solid and strong athlete who uses his strength in the paint. He had eight starts last season, including a 14-point, five-board effort against Lehigh, following by a 10-point outing against Illinois in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. He also had six points and five boards in 14 minutes in the NIT first-round game at Minnesota.

Gregory has played both the small forward and power forward spots for Maryland in the past, but Williams feels he's better suited to play the power forward. Gregory appeared in 14 games last season as a freshman out of a quality Mount St. Joseph's program in Baltimore.

Goins was a late addition in the recruiting season for Maryland, but his 6-10, 260-pound size and his athletic ability attracted the Terps. He averaged 14 points and 11 rebounds at Curie High School as a senior and has been tabbed by high school and AAU observers as the sleeper pick coming out of the rich Chicago metropolitan area.

Walk-on David Pearman, a 6-foot-6 small forward, also returns for his sophomore season and will provide depth to the frontcourt.

Braxton Dupree

Cliff Tucker

Coaching Staff

For the first time in a couple seasons, Williams will have the same group of assistant coaches helping prepare this team. Chuck Driesell and former Terp standout Keith Booth each return, while Robert Ehsan is on his fourth season on the staff and has progressed from graduate assistant to assistant coach.

"We're solid in that our staff is the same," says Williams, who has had key assistants take head-coaching positions recently. "We were together last year, coaching these guys. There's no getting to know anybody for the players.

"A lot of guys got head coaching jobs, and we went through a lot of changes in the staff for three years."

The continuity will hopefully pay off in a season in which Williams feels it will be important to have the team progress over the course of the year.

"I think if we can stay healthy, we're going to be the type of team that really gets better," he says. "I've had teams like this before. I think we have the attitude that we'll work hard all year. If you have that attitude, that's what happens.

"When you play in November, you could be the best team in the country at that point. But if you stay that way, there will be 50 teams that will pass you. If you're a good team in basketball, you continue to get better. Sometimes, it's the games that make you better, it's not just practice."

Schedule

The Atlantic Coast Conference has been the top league in the nation in four of the last five seasons in terms of RPI. Once again, the league is loaded with outstanding teams, led by consensus preseason No. 1 pick North Carolina.

With the rotation of the schedule, Maryland has the dubious honor of being the only team in the league that faces both North Carolina and Duke in a home-and-home series. The Terps also play a home-and-home pairing against improving Miami, another team getting Top-25 mention by some observers.

Virginia and Georgia Tech are the other ACC teams Maryland will face twice this season. The Terps play Boston College, Wake Forest and Virginia Tech once each in Comcast Center, and will play single road games in league against NC State, Florida State and Clemson.

After opening the season at home on Nov. 14 against Bucknell, one of the highlights of the non-conference schedule have Maryland playing in Orlando, Fla., at the Old Spice Classic, an eight-team, three-day event that features six teams that appeared in the postseason a year ago.

Maryland will open against Michigan State and have Gonzaga and Oklahoma State on its side of the bracket. Georgetown and Tennessee are also in the field.

The Terps host Michigan in this season's ACC/Big Ten Challenge, then travel to Washington's Verizon Center to play George Washington in the annual BB&T Classic. Following those games, Maryland has a seven-game homestand that ends on Jan. 10 with Georgia Tech coming to Comcast Center to open the league season.

"We're fortunate we have the Big Ten game with Michigan here this year," says Williams. "That gives us a good home game. We also play Charlotte here this year, and they were tough for us last year down there.

"We're probably in as good a tournament as there is in the country this year. It will be a tough tournament, but most teams play in these events now. You need that in November, and it gives you a great deal of exposure."

Cliff Tucker

"I think if we can stay healthy, we're going to be the type of team that really gets better," he says. "I've had teams like this before. I think we have the attitude that we'll work hard all year. If you have that attitude, that's what happens."

2002 COACH OF THE YEAR

Since returning to the College Park campus in 1989, Gary Williams (Maryland '68) has led his alma mater's basketball program from a period of troubled times to an era of national prominence. With 12 NCAA Tournament berths in the last 15 seasons, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, a pair of consecutive Final Four showings, and the 2002 national championship - the first of its kind in Maryland basketball history - Williams and his staff have literally forged what is now more than a decade of dominance in college basketball's most storied and competitive conference.

Now, with 397 victories as Maryland's head coach, Williams stands as the Terrapins all-time winningest head basketball coach. He passed Charles "Lefty" Driesell, who amassed 348 victories in 18 seasons from 1969 to 1986. The Terrapins have averaged 22.7 wins per year since the 1994-95 season.

With 604 career victories in 30 seasons overall, Williams is the seventh-winningest active head coach in NCAA Division I men's basketball. The rise of the Maryland program has run parallel with Williams' ascent among the most notable in the collegiate coaching fraternity. Williams was one of only five coaches to boast a string of 11 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament from 1994-2004. He has produced more at least 20 wins in nine of his last 12 seasons, and a school-record eight straight from 1996-97 to 2003-04. With 16 career 20-win seasons, Williams ranks seventh among active coaches.

- Williams has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts. The program is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. Williams will serve as President of the National Coaches vs. Cancer for 2005-06. He was the recipient of the organization's Inspiration award for 2002 and was the 2005 Champion Award winner.
- In June of 2005, Williams received the University of Maryland's highest alumni honor as he, Connie Chung, Renaldo Nehemiah and others were inducted into the University of Maryland's Alumni Hall of Fame. Williams was inducted into the University of Maryland's Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.
- In January of 2005, Williams was named one of Washingtonian Magazine's 'Washingtonians of the Year.' He joined others such as Washington D.C. mayor Anthony Williams and Tim Russert of NBC's Meet The Press on the prestigious list.
- In September of 2004, Williams joined Washington Redskins great Darrell Green and Washington Sports and Entertainment Chairman and CEO Abe Pollin as the inaugural inductees into the new Greater Washington Sports Hall of Champions.
- Williams was one of only five coaches in NCAA Division I to have led his team to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, from 1994-2004. The Terrapins' 2006 appearance in the NIT marked the 15th consecutive postseason berth for Williams' teams.
- In guiding his 2004 Terrapins to the ACC Tournament title, Williams became the third coach in league history to lead his team to victory over the top three seeds: No. 3 Wake Forest, No. 2 NC State and No. 1 Duke. By overcoming a 21-point first half deficit against the Wolfpack, Williams engineered the greatest comeback in the 55-year history of the ACC Tournament.
- He is one of seven college basketball coaches since 1980 to guide his alma mater to the Final Four and was the first since 1974 to lead his alma mater to a national title.
- A winner of nearly 70 percent of his NCAA Tournament games while at Maryland, he ranks ninth among active coaches in NCAA Tournament winning percentage overall (27-14, .659), and eighth in wins (27).

* With his 500th win at NC State on March 2, 2003, the 1966 Maryland grad became the sixth ACC alumnus in conference history to amass as many as 500 coaching victories.
* With a victory over No. 1 North Carolina in Chapel Hill on Jan. 19, 2008, he is the winningest coach in the nation against top-ranked opponents (7).
* With 307 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth mentor in Atlantic Coast Conference history to pass the 300-victory milestone.
* With 165 career ACC victories as Maryland's coach, Williams ranks as the third-winningest ACC coach in terms of conference victories. Only Dean Smith (364, North Carolina) and Mike Krzyzewski (264, Duke) have more conference wins.

National Prominence

For Williams, now in his 20th season, the accomplishments of the past 15 years have been particularly sweet for a coach whose roots with the program extend to his playing days in the late 1960s, and whose earliest seasons as head coach were tormented by NCAA sanctions he inherited. The two-time Final Four architect and ACC championship mentor is himself a Maryland alumnus, who found glory for a program whose history is filled with a myriad of some of the most prominent names in college basketball annals: Shue, Lucas, Elmore, McMillen, Albert King, Elias, Buck Williams and Walt Williams.

Guiding his Maryland team to the 2004 ACC title remains a poignant source of pride for Williams and all of the Terrapin faithful. Coaching the most youth-filled team in college basketball to an incredible weekend of success, in a year where the ACC was rated the nation's most competitive conference, is not an accomplishment soon to be forgotten by Maryland's fans or the coach himself. The weekend featured three hard-fought, instant-classic contests. In the end, the Terrapins emerged victorious, with their first tournament title since 1984 and only the third in the storied history of the Maryland program. In only three days – three days that were the result of a season's worth of determination, diligence and lessons learned – the Terps were transformed from a team teetering on the edge of the NCAA bubble to a No. 4 seed in the national tournament.

The excitement of the 2004 ACC Tournament conjured images of the Terrapins' NCAA title run only two years earlier. Williams followed a remarkable 2001 Final Four season by compiling the most wins in Maryland history, going 32-4 in 2002. He engineered the school's best regular season ever (25-3), its first outright ACC regular season title since 1980, its first No. 1 seed in an NCAA Tournament, and a return to the Final Four. He earned billing as the league's coach of the year for the first time in his career and later was honored with various national awards, the Victor Award and the New York Athletic Club's Winged Foot Award as the coach of the national champions.

Capping his personal ascent to college basketball's highest pinnacle, Williams added author to his resume in summer 2002 by completing an autobiography entitled Sweet Redemption, with award-winning journalist David Visc. The book captures the essence of Williams' arrival at Maryland, the Terps' rebuilding efforts, their return to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and their tournament climb ever since.

The rise of the Maryland program has run parallel with Williams' ascent among the most notable in the collegiate coaching fraternity. Williams was one of only five coaches to boast a string of 11 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament from 1994-2004. He has produced more than 20 wins in 13 of his last 14 seasons, and a school-record eight straight from 1996-97 to 2003-04. Williams' 16 career 20-win seasons places him eighth among active coaches.

Williams, 397-215 at Maryland, boasts a 604-343 overall record including four years at American (1979-82), four at Boston College (1983-86) and three at Ohio State (1987-89). In 30 seasons as a Division I head coach, Williams has coached in 15 NCAA Tournaments and guided nine different teams to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen. One of 26 coaches ever to take three different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Williams has guided teams to the NIT or NCAA Tournament at each of his four coaching stops.

During his run of 11 straight NCAA Tournaments at Maryland, he forged his way to becoming the winningest NCAA Tournament coach in Maryland history with 23 wins and 11 losses – nearly 70 percent. He boasts a 27-14 NCAA Tournament record overall, and has carried Maryland to the Sweet Sixteen in five of the past 11 years.

Terp Alumnus

Williams is one of just two 600-win coaches who now engineer the programs at their respective alma maters, joining Jim Boeheim at Syracuse. With Roy Williams of North Carolina, those three also are the only active coaches to direct their alma maters to multiple Final Four appearances.

In 2001, Williams became just the sixth coach since 1960 to direct his alma mater to the Final Four. A year later, he became the first coach since 1974 to guide his alma mater to a national title. Williams is the only active coach to take his alma mater to consecutive Final Four appearances. He is only the eighth mentor ever to guide his alma mater to consecutive Final Fours, and the first since Houston's Guy Lewis in 1982, 1983 and 1984.

A former Terrapin point guard and 1966 graduate, Williams was a starter under coach Bud Milliken during the 1965, 1966 and 1967 seasons. He was the team captain as a senior and still lists one of his most memorable basketball moments as his experience as a spectator at the 1966 national championship game conducted at Maryland's legendary Cole Field House, between Texas Western and Kentucky.

The former Terrapin student-athlete is also noted as one of just eight former ACC basketball players ever to return to the league as a head coach. On March 2, 2003, Williams became the sixth ACC alumnus to win at least 500 games as Drew Nicholas nailed a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to down NC State, 69-65. With 397 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth ACC coach to reach the 300 milestone.

Williams Era

Inducted into the University of Maryland Sports Hall of Fame in 1999 and the University's Alumni Hall of Fame in 2005, Williams has placed his alma mater's program back among the elite in the always-competitive Atlantic Coast Conference. The Terps have become synonymous with Duke and North Carolina among the league's most dominant programs, and nationally have become a fixture among weekly polls.

Another success story during the Williams Era at Maryland was the coveted home-court win streak over non-conference foes, which spanned more than 12 years and 87 games. Maryland did not lose a non-league home game under Williams for well over a decade after just his fourth home game as head coach: Dec. 12, 1989 vs. Coppin State. The Terps went undefeated against non-conference foes during the final 12 years of competition at Cole Field House, and ran the record to 87 games before a five-point loss to No. 14 Florida on Dec. 14, 2002 at Comcast Center.

The decade of the 1990s was certainly a decade of resurgence for the Maryland basketball team.

Since Williams' arrival as head coach in the summer of 1989, the Terps have soared to a level of national prominence unmatched during the first century of the program – and unmatched by the vast majority of programs nationwide. Included among the many superior accomplishments during the Williams Era are: a school-record 11 straight NCAA Tournament appearances (1994-04) which included consecutive trips to the Final Four, a national crown and seven Sweet Sixteen appearances; the 2004 ACC title; 11 consecutive upper-division finishes in the ACC including runner-up distinction in 1999, 2000 and 2003; an outright regular season ACC title in 2002 and a shared one in 1995; a school-record 28 victories during the 1999 season which was shattered again with 32 in 2002; four NBA lottery picks, one national Player of the Year, a senior of the year and two ACC Players of the Year; an ACC Tournament MVP; and the first recipient of the nation's Senior CLASS Award.

MARYLAND

2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

Added for good measure are a NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in Steve Francis (2000), and a preseason top-five ranking three times in four seasons (1999-2002). The result is a program and a coach who have reached icon status.

Williams is the only head coach in school history to guide the Terps to 15 postseason tournament appearances. After guiding his first two Maryland teams to winning records and overcoming an NCAA probationary period resulting from the previous regime, he guided the Terps to an NCAA Tournament appearance in just his fifth season, 1991, and earned a share of the ACC regular-season title in just his sixth, 1995.

Williams' past 15 seasons have brought Maryland from striving for contention in the Atlantic Coast Conference to the realization of the tournament title in 2002; from endeavors to become nationally competitive to the reality of 12 NCAA berths, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, two Final Fours and of course, the 2002 NCAA championship.

In 2003, Williams took a group of experienced but mostly untested Terps to a third-straight Sweet Sixteen. Along the way, the squad earned its fourth final Top 10 ranking in five seasons, posted a seventh-straight 20-win season, recorded a school-record sixth straight finish in the upper echelon of the ACC by capturing second place, and posted a school-record sixth straight season of double-digit ACC victories. The Terrapins helped Williams to his 600th career coaching victory at Boston College on February 6, 2008.

The 2002 championship itself was a product of maturity and steadfast dedication to a common goal – and included a magical ride through the final season of play at venerable Cole Field House. Williams molded a cast of seven returning players from its national semifinalists of 2001, while senior captains Lonny Baxter, Juan Dixon and Byron Mouton keyed a consistent effort from the beginning of practice in October, through an undefeated (15-0) home campaign at Cole, all the way to a net-cutting evening at the Georgia Dome on April 1. The Terrapins overcame personal obstacles and handled the ACC's and the NCAA Tournament's stiffest challenges. After winning the ACC regular season crown with a 15-1 record, the Terps' ascent to the national championship game included successive victories over perennial powers Wisconsin, Kentucky, Connecticut and Kansas – and a 64-52 defeat of Indiana in the title game. Maryland won the first national title in school history, and earned its very first No. 1 ranking, after becoming the first team in NCAA history to reach the championship game by defeating the highest possible seed in every round.

A year earlier, the Terrapins began the season with a lofty No. 5 ranking by the Associated Press and finished with the No. 4 spot by USA Today/ESPN. The Terps butted heads weekly during an ACC schedule that included five nationally ranked teams, but found their stride late in the year to win 10 of their last 12 games. Of those 10, seven nationally ranked foes fell in the Terps' path to the Final Four, with their only losses coming to eventual NCAA and ACC champion Duke. Local rival Georgetown was dispatched in the Sweet Sixteen, and an 87-73 win over No. 2-ranked and top-seeded Stanford earned Maryland its first NCAA regional title.

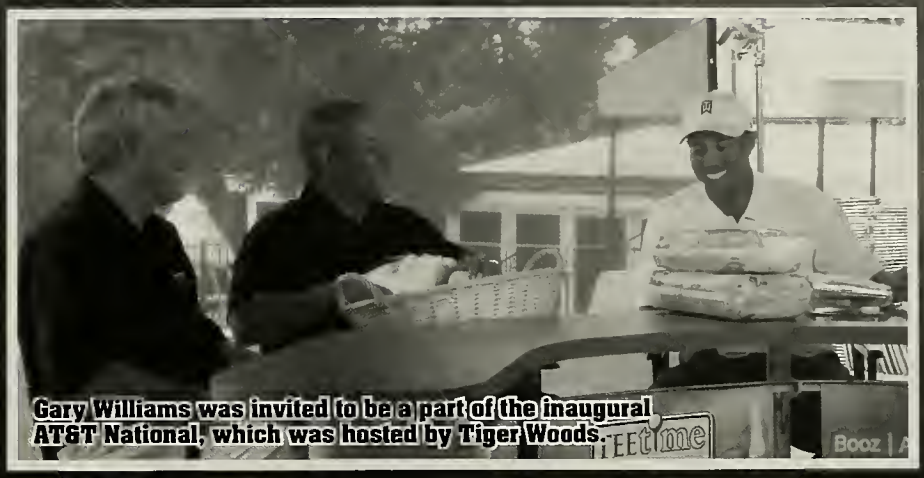
The 2001 season may have been one of Williams' greatest coaching accomplishments ever – guiding a "rebuilding" Terrapin team to 25 wins, a second straight second-place finish in the ACC and its first trip to the conference tournament final since 1984. All with a freshman point guard (Steve Blake), three first-year starters (Baxter, Blake, Dixon) and only one senior following the loss of three players to the NBA draft. Two years later, those three first-year starters would become seasoned veterans and national champions.

Four years after tying for his first ACC regular season championship in 1995, Williams led Maryland to a then school-record 28 victories and a school-record 13 ACC victories during the 1999 season. The Terps finished the season ranked No. 5 by the Associated Press – then the highest final ranking since 1975 and only the third time in school history that the program had earned a top five final national ranking. Maryland peaked at No. 2 as it won its first 10 games of the season, and its No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament matched the highest tournament seed in school history.

Williams has been voted as a national coach of the year finalist five times, including his selection in 2002 as the national coach of the year by Basketball America and CBSSportsline.com, and in 2001 by Playboy. Besides the ACC coaching honor, other accolades after the 2002 championship season included the Winged Foot Award as presented by the N.Y. Athletic Club; the Victor Award as presented by the National Academy of Sports Editors; the Harry Litwack Award as Eastern Coach of the Year, presented annually by the Herb Good Club of Philadelphia; and Seaboard Region Coach of the Year honors as named by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. In 1997, ACC Athlete Magazine voted him as the ACC Coach of the Year. He received the same honor from College Hoops Illustrated in 2000. Following Maryland's 1997 season, when the Terps advanced to the NCAA Tournament and finished with a 9-7 record in the ACC, he was named as the Seaboard Region Coach of the Year by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. He was honored as the district coach of the year in 1981, and in 1983 he was named as the Eastern Coach of the Year.

Williams has cemented his legacy as one of America's greatest recruiters and college coaches — a statement backed not just by consecutive Final Four appearances or 25 winning records in 30 seasons, but by 29 NBA draft choices and the numerous former assistant coaches who now guide their own programs. Williams has mentored seven first-round selections and six NBA lottery picks: Walt Williams (#7 pick, 1992), Joe Smith (#1, 1995), Steve Francis (#2, 1999) and Chris Wilcox (#8, 2002); and Ohio State standouts Jim Jackson (#5, 1992) and Dennis Hopson (#3, 1987). Two-time European player of the year Sarunas Jasikevicius played for four years under Williams and starred in Europe before signing with the Indiana Pacers in the summer of 2005.

Williams was hired on June 13, 1989. He inherited a team that had won only nine games the year before and finished in last place in the ACC. Displaying his coaching abilities immediately, he helped the Terps to 19 wins while advancing to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament – and making him the first coach in school history to lead a team into the postseason in his first year.



Gary Williams was invited to be a part of the inaugural AT&T National, which was hosted by Tiger Woods.

In addition, Maryland's 10-game improvement in the win column during Williams' first season was the largest in school history and second largest in the annals of the ACC by a first-year coach. Only the legendary Press Maravich, who improved NC State's winning ledger by 13 games in his inaugural season (1965), can boast a higher first-year improvement in the win column.

A 1966 graduate of Maryland, Williams lettered as the Terps' starting point guard from 1965-67 under head coach Bud Millikan, serving as team captain during his senior season. It was as a player in the ACC that Williams began developing his basketball philosophy. Playing beside three-year teammates Joe Harrington and Jay McMillen, he studied the game under Millikan, and it was then that he developed his penchant for the full-court pressure defenses for which his teams are now known. He learned his half court man-to-man defense from Millikan, who learned from the legendary Hank Iba. The fast-breaking offense that Williams' teams employ is similar to the style Vic Bubas' Duke teams used when Williams was a player.

Path Back To College Park

Williams began his coaching career alongside Harrington as graduate students at Maryland under freshman coach Tom Davis. The 1969 freshman team finished with a 12-4 record as Williams bonded with Davis in a relationship that would serve him well as his coaching career progressed.

After earning a degree in business, he continued his coaching career as an assistant at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, N.J. After one year, he took over as the head coach and guided his first team to a perfect 27-0 record and the state title. Williams has called that season "the ultimate — there wasn't another game to win." Upon winning the NCAA West Region championship in 2001, he fondly recalled his championship at Camden as the "only other time I've ever got to cut down a net."

Williams spent one more year at Woodrow Wilson before accepting an invitation from Davis in 1972 to become an assistant at Lafayette College. While an assistant at Lafayette, Williams also served as the head soccer coach. In 1975, Williams accompanied Davis to Boston College. After one year there, Williams became the head coach at American University.

Williams immediately began making his mark. His 1981 squad set the still-standing school record for victories with a 24-6 mark, won the East Coast Conference championship, and played in the NIT. Williams was named the district coach of the year. American returned to postseason play the next season as the Williams-led Eagles went 21-9 and played in the NIT for the second consecutive year. Only once prior to Williams' arrival had AU attended a postseason tournament, and the Eagles have not returned since. Williams' four-year record at AU was 72-42.

In 1983, Williams succeeded Davis at Boston College. He was once again an instant success, posting a 25-7 record and leading the Eagles to the regular-season championship of the Big East in his first season. Making his first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, Williams directed the Eagles to the Sweet 16. He finished third in the balloting for national coach of the year, and was honored again as the Eastern Coach of the Year by his peers. He went on to duplicate that NCAA Tournament success again in 1985, leading B.C. back to the Sweet Sixteen.

In 1987, Williams accepted the head coaching job at Ohio State, becoming the 10th basketball coach in that school's illustrious history. He succeeded Eldon Miller and once again enjoyed success. In three years, the Buckeyes made three postseason appearances. His first squad defeated then-No. 1 and unbeaten Iowa (coached by Tom Davis) in the regular season, in what would be the first of many giant-killings. During Williams' three-year term at Ohio State, OSU defeated a second-ranked Purdue team, perennial power Kansas and highly regarded Big Ten powers Michigan and Illinois. Each of Williams' three Ohio State teams advanced to postseason play, and he laid the groundwork for the highly successful teams that followed when he left Columbus for College Park.

Williams In The Community

The Terrapins head coach is an active member of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C., community. Williams is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason

In July of 2004, University President C.D. Mote Jr. appointed Williams to co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's ongoing $1 billion Great Expectations campaign. Williams, along with journalist Connie Chung and technology entrepreneur Buno Pati serve as co-chairs of the scholarship campaign, which is working to raise $350 million. In addition to a pledge of a half-million dollars of his own for academic scholarships at the university, Williams represents the University at various functions and performs various networking duties to spearhead the fund-raising effort.

During the summer of 2006, Williams participated in Operation Hardwood, a goodwill tour to support the American troops serving in the Middle East. He spent a week touring the Persian Gulf region and coaching basketball teams made up of the best military players.

Williams served as the commencement speaker at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business. Williams, a 1968 University graduate with a degree in business, addressed the Class of 2004 at the Comcast Center ceremony.

Williams' recent charity work has benefited:

Coaches vs. Cancer, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Great Expectations Campaign, National Autism Research, National Physical Education Council, Operation Hardwood, The Salvation Army and The Babe Ruth Museum

Williams has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts. The program is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. The coaches participating in this program are dedicated to fighting cancer through increased support for research, patient services, and prevention education.

Williams has also worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events.

In addition, Williams has also served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than one million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired the Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceeds for Washington, D.C.'s youth.

CHUCK Driesell

ASSISTANT COACH
MARYLAND '85
THIRD SEASON AT MARYLAND

Former Terp shooting guard and Maryland alumnus Chuck Driesell enters his third season on head coach Gary Williams' staff. Driesell, who is respected as a recruiter, has gone head-to-head with schools from the Atlantic Coast Conference, Southeastern Conference and the Big East. He brings 18 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Terps' program where his father, the legendary Charles "Lefty" Driesell, coached from 1969-86.

During his first season on staff in 2006-07, the Terrapins posted a 25-9 record. Maryland went 10-6 in ACC play and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. An integral part of the coaching staff, Driesell works as the lead recruiting coordinator for the Terps. In addition, he is responsible for advance scouting, player development, and game preparation.

Driesell joined the Maryland staff after serving as head coach at Bishop Ireton High School from 2004 to 2006. During that time he coached current Terrapin Shane Walker. Prior to his stint at Bishop Ireton, he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgetown University in 2003-04. Driesell spent six seasons (1997-2003) as head coach at Marymount University (Division III) in Arlington, Va., where he guided the Saints to an 88-72 mark. In 1999-2000, he led Marymount to the Capital Athletic Conference Tournament Championship and its first Division III NCAA Tournament appearance. Driesell also served as assistant athletic director at Marymount from 1998-2003.

Before arriving at Marymount, Driesell spent nine seasons as associate head coach at James Madison under his father, where he helped guide the Dukes to unprecedented success. From 1989-94, JMU either won or tied for five consecutive Colonial Athletic Association regular-season championships (the only team in the country to do so at the time). The Dukes captured the 1994 CAA Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, where James Madison lost to eventual national finalist Florida, 64-62. JMU compiled a 159-111 record (85-45 CAA) and made four postseason appearances in nine seasons under the Driesells.

As a four-year letterwinner at Maryland from 1981-85, Driesell was part of four postseason teams under his father's leadership. The Terps won 85 games during his career, while making three NCAA Tournament appearances and capturing the 1984 ACC Championship.

The Silver Spring, Md., native was also an ACC Honor Roll selection three of his four years at Maryland and graduated with a B.S. in business marketing in 1985. Following graduation, Driesell began his coaching career at the United States Naval Prep School, where he amassed a 40-29 record from 1985-86.

KEITH Booth

ASSISTANT COACH
MARYLAND '03
FIFTH SEASON AT MARYLAND

In his fifth season on Gary Williams' coaching staff, former Terrapin All-American and NBA World Champion Keith Booth is back to the place he called home from 1994-97. A powerful and versatile athlete from his playing days in the post, Booth led the Terrapins to four NCAA Tournaments, including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances, and in 1994 began Maryland's streak of 11 consecutive NCAA berths that ran from 1994 to 2004.

Booth assists with the daily operations of the men's basketball program, including recruiting, advance scouting, player development, and game preparation. During his time on staff, the Terrapins have won no fewer than 19 games and posted 25 wins in 2006-07.

In a dominant senior season at Maryland, Booth led the Terps in scoring (19.5 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg) and steals (2.0 spg) and is still Maryland's all-time leader in free throws made (576). Booth finished his impressive career at Maryland among the Terps' all-time leaders in scoring (8th, 1,776 points), rebounding (6th, 916 points), steals (5th, 193) and is one of 15 players to have his jersey honored above the Terps' home court at Comcast Center. In October of 2006, Booth was inducted into the University of Maryland Athletics Hall of Fame.

Charm City Connection

The Baltimore, Md., native's decision to attend the University out of Dunbar High School was considered one of the major recruiting windfalls for Williams and the Terps in the mid-1990s. As a 6-foot-6 guard, Booth was frequently called upon by Williams to guard bigger opponents, and he always rose to occasion.

"Keith Booth was the most important recruit during my years here in terms of getting our basketball program to the national level," said Williams when Booth was introduced as an assistant coach at his alma mater. "Keith always achieved success against larger opponents, and his competitive attitude will carry over to our players."

As a senior at Dunbar, Booth was a Parade and McDonald's All-American selection, he also led his team to the Maryland Class "A" State Championship. Booth was named "Player of the Year" in Baltimore City and the state of Maryland by the Baltimore Sun. A year earlier, Booth led his Dunbar squad to a 29-0 record as a junior, helping the team to a No.1 national ranking by USA Today.

It was Booth's decision to attend Maryland that revived the Terps' recruiting pipeline to talent-rich Baltimore. Terrapin star Rodney Elliott followed Booth from the Charm City and enjoyed a successful career as a Terp, and in 1998 another Baltimore native, Juan Dixon, arrived on campus. Dixon, of course, would help continue Maryland's resurgence begun by Booth and teammate Joe Smith, as he eventually became the Terps' all-time scoring leader and keyed Maryland to the 2002 National Championship.

Back at Maryland, Booth assists in all facets of the basketball program. He will work with the athletics department's Academic Support and Career Development to ensure that the team's academic responsibilities are met. He will also assume responsibilities as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp, coordinating the management of the coaches, scheduling of the facilities, housing, meals and guest speakers.

Proven Champion

After a stellar career at Maryland playing alongside Smith, Elliott, Johnny Rhodes and others, Booth was an AP third team All-America selection as a senior in 1997. Booth left Maryland with a host of accolades including All-ACC honors four times, earning first-team honors as a senior, third team as a junior, and honorable mention designation during his freshman and sophomore seasons.

Booth's teams appeared in two NCAA Sweet Sixteens, finishing his sophomore season as ACC regular season co-champions and ranked No. 10 in the country in the final AP poll. That year (1994-95) the Terps compiled a 26-8 record, including a perfect 16-0 record at Cole Field House. Booth finished his Terrapin career with averages of 14.1 points per game and 7.3 rebounds.

After his playing years at Maryland, Booth was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bulls in 1997, taken as the 29th selection overall. Booth became the second player in school history to win a NBA Championship when the Michael Jordan-led Bulls won the title in 1998. Booth had his best NBA game on March 30, 1999, as he posted career-highs of 18 points, nine rebounds and six assists against the Philadelphia 76ers.

Following a pair of seasons in the NBA, Booth returned to campus and finished his degree in criminology and criminal justice in 2003. Booth worked at an after school program at his former high school Dunbar, and rediscovered his love of coaching while managing a middle school baseball team in Baltimore.

ROBERT Ehsan

ASSISTANT COACH
UC DAVIS '05
FOURTH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Robert Ehsan's fourth season on the University of Maryland men's basketball staff will find him having moved to an assistant coach position, continuing his upward progression with the Terps.

After two seasons as a graduate assistant, Ehsan moved up last year to the spot of assistant recruiting coordinator. This season, his areas of responsibilities include working with the department's compliance office, assisting with scheduling and providing training and practice schedules.

Ehsan is responsible for maintaining the Terrapins' recruiting database and works closely with the Gary Williams summer camps and golf tournament.

"Robert is one of the top young assistants in college basketball," said head coach Gary Williams, regarding the former graduate assistant. "He has been a tremendous asset for our program working with academics, advance scouting, player development and game management."

The Terrapins have been to the postseason in each of the past four years and have a record of 82-50 with Ehsan on staff.

Last season, the Terps made pulled one of the nation's stunning upsets with a victory at No. 1-ranked North Carolina. In 2006-07, the Terps finished 25-9, including a 10-6 mark in league play. Maryland's 25 victories marked the fourth-highest win total in school history and four Terps earned all-conference honors following the season.

Ehsan played four seasons at the University of California, Davis. He started his last two seasons for the Aggies and was the team captain in his senior year. Ehsan finished 23rd in the nation in free-throw percentage as a junior for Davis, which was in a transition period while moving from NCAA Division II to Division I. At Davis, Ehsan received the Gordon S. Baranco Award, symbolizing exceptional leadership, unselfishness, work ethic and commitment toward the team.

He became interested in coaching while assisting with camp staffs at Santa Clara, UC Santa Barbara, UC Davis and Gary Williams Basketball Camp at Maryland. Ehsan also held other positions in finance and marketing during summers. Ehsan led his Bella Vista High School team in scoring during all four seasons and was a three-time all-league pick at the Sacramento-area school.

He earned a bachelor's degree in economics while at UC Davis, making the athletics honor roll from 2002 through 2005. Ehsan completed a master's of business administration from UMUC in April 2008. A native of Sacramento, Calif., he resides in College Park.

TROY Wainwright

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
13TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Troy Wainwright, the director of basketball operations, is in his 13th year as a member of Gary Williams' staff. He is an essential part of the success of the team, both on and off the court, and is responsible for the administration of the basketball office.

Wainwright is responsible for all internal operations of the basketball program and serves as a liaison to the athletics department including Deborah Yow, Maryland's director of athletics. He is involved in the day-to-day operations of the team, including budgetary matters, team travel, on-campus housing and dining contracts. In addition, Wainwright is responsible for non-conference scheduling and works with the conference office to coordinate the Terps' ACC schedule.

A native of Berlin, Md., Wainwright has played an integral role in the Terps' success since his arrival. The Terps have appeared in the NCAA Tournament nine times, won the NCAA championship in 2002 and captured the ACC title in 2004. Maryland has averaged over 20 wins during his 12 seasons with the team, despite playing the second-toughest schedule in the nation in 2005, the third most difficult in 2002 and the fifth most arduous in 1996. In 2003, 1997 and 1998 the Terps advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament, and in 1999, Maryland won 25 games and was ranked fifth in the nation. In 2001, the Terps advanced to the Final Four and were ranked No. 4 in final rankings by USA Today/ESPN, and in 2002 the Maryland basketball family captured its first-ever national championship and finished with a No. 1 ranking.

Among Wainwright's chief responsibilities is the administration of team travel plans. Wainwright coordinates all transportation (air and ground) as well as hotel accommodations. During his tenure, Wainwright has successfully coordinated travel to nine NCAA Tournaments, 12 ACC Tournaments, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Madison Square Garden, as well as every regular-season game. Wainwright successfully directed the Terrapins up and down the East Coast during the 2002 NCAA championship run, to Nashville and San Antonio as part of Maryland's 2003 Sweet Sixteen campaign, and to Denver for a school-record 11th straight NCAA appearance in 2004.

During the summer of 2004, Wainwright played an integral role in coordinating travel for the Terrapins during a 12-day, five-game tour of Italy.

Wainwright serves as the director of the annual Gary Williams golf tournament that raises money to endow scholarships for the basketball program. The tournament has raised more than $300,000 during the 12 years since Wainwright's arrival. As tournament director, Wainwright helps solicit sponsorships and participants, and helps with event management on the day of the event. In addition, he coordinates team and individual player awards and a silent auction.

Wainwright also serves as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp each summer. He helps coordinate virtually every aspect of the camp including housing, meals and camp speakers. The recent Gary Williams camps were the largest in its history, attracting more than 1,200 overnight campers each over a three-week period in each of the last four summers.

Wainwright was a sociology major at the University of Maryland and went on to work as an account manager with the Washington Bullets from 1992-1994. He then served as an advertising account executive at the Washington Times from 1994-96. He completed a degree at University of Maryland, University College in 2004.

Wainwright served as head manager for the basketball team during Williams' first season at Maryland, 1990, and accompanied the Terps as they advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. He served as an assistant manager for the three years preceding Williams' arrival in College Park. Wainwright completed a master's degree in management from UMUC in May 2002.

J.J. Bush

ASSISTANT TO THE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR
ATHLETICS TRAINER - MEN'S BASKETBALL
FLORIDA STATE '69
37TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

J.J. Bush is in his 17th season as the athletic trainer for Gary Williams and the Terrapin men's basketball program. The past 16 years represent his second stint working with the program for the University of Maryland 30-Year Service Award winner, as he was also the team's trainer from 1972-1976.

As the trainer for the basketball team, Bush coordinates the daily medical treatments for all the players and supervises all rehabilitative efforts in case of injury. In the last 16 years, Bush has accompanied the Terrapins to 12 NCAA Tournaments, including seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, two Final Fours and the national championship in 2002.

Bush came to the university in 1972 as an assistant trainer and began working immediately with the men's basketball team. The team won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship in 1975 and averaged 23 wins per season during his first four-year stint.

From 1979 until 1992, Bush served as the head trainer of the Terrapin football team, which claimed four ACC championships and played in nine bowl games during that era. In 1992 he returned to Cole Field House and the basketball team as an assistant to the athletics director.

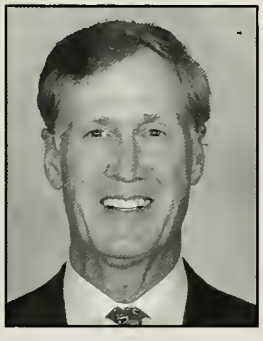
In addition to his training duties, Bush teaches basic and advanced courses on care and prevention of athletic injuries in Maryland's College of Health and Human Performance, and is a frequent lecturer throughout the Mid-Atlantic region of the United States.

In May 2005, Bush was a member of the inaugural class inducted into the Maryland Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame. A founding member of MATA, Bush is credited as the author of the organization's constitution and by-laws.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Bush, 61, graduated from Florida State University in 1969. He and his wife Gina have two children, Brandon and Jordan, and reside in University Park, Md.

Joe Harrington

DIR. OF MEN'S BASKETBALL STUDENT-ATHLETE SERVICES
MARYLAND '67
SECOND YEAR AT MARYLAND



Joe Harrington has spent decades developing young basketball talent around the nation. Now he brings that expertise back to where his career began in College Park, Md.

Harrington was a teammate of Gary Williams at Maryland from 1965-67 under Head Coach Bud Milikan, and averaged 8.5 points and 5.5 points in 344 career games as a Terrapin. He was selected by the Boston Celtics in the 1967 draft.

Harrington opted to stay at Maryland after he graduated, serving first as a graduate assistant alongside Williams under freshman coach Tom Davis, and later as an assistant to Coach Lefty Driesell from 1969-1979. His time at Maryland marked one of the most successful decades in Maryland basketball history, as the Terps reached the Elite Eight twice and also captured the NIT Championship in 1972. Four of those teams were ranked in the top 14 in the season's final Associated Press poll, including final rankings of No. 4 in 1974 and No. 5 in 1975. Harrington also helped mentor four All-Americans at College Park, coaching Tom McMillen, Len Elmore, John Lucas and Albert King to basketball greatness.

In 1980, Harrington left College Park to take the reins as head coach at George Mason, where he compiled a 112-85 record in a successful career from 1980-1987. He was named the Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year in 1984, when the Patriots compiled a 21-7 record. In eight seasons with Mason, he produced 10 all-conference selections and saw Carlos Yates earn honorable mention All-America honors four straight years.

Following his stint with the Patriots, Harrington took over as head coach of Long Beach State, where he posted a record of 53-36 from 1987-90. Harrington guided the 49ers to the NIT in 1988 and 1990, before leaving to take over at the University of Colorado, where he served as head coach from 1990 to 1996.

There, he ended the school's 22-year postseason drought by earning a bid to the 1991 NIT, where the Buffaloes advanced to the Final Four. In addition to guiding CU to a second NIT appearance in 1995, he coached Donnie Boyce, who became Colorado's all-time leading scorer, as well as NBA All-Star Chauncey Billups. Harrington produced seven all-conference performers at Colorado.

Harrington brings NBA experience to the Terps as well, having worked in the National Basketball Association as an assistant on the Toronto Raptors staff from 1999-2001. In Toronto, he helped coach the franchise to its first playoff appearance and mentored NBA All-Stars Vince Carter and Tracy McGrady, who blossomed into the league's Rookie of the Year under Harrington's watch.

Paul Ricci

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
TEMPLE '93
FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND

Paul Ricci has joined the University of Maryland men's basketball staff as its strength and conditioning coach, head coach Gary Williams announced recently.

Ricci comes to the Terrapin basketball staff after nine seasons on the strength and conditioning staff of the Baltimore Ravens. During his time in Baltimore, the Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV, and he worked with 17 NFL Pro-Bowlers, including Jonathan Ogden, Ray Lewis, Jamal Lewis and Terrell Suggs.

In his last season, he served as an assistant on the Ravens defensive staff.

Prior to his time with the Ravens, he served on the strength & conditioning staffs of the San Diego Padres, Arizona Cardinals, Philadelphia Eagles, and Seattle Seahawks.

Ricci was an offensive lineman at Penn State University before he finished his undergraduate career with a bachelor's degree in exercise science and leadership from Temple University in December 1993. He earned a master's at Goucher College in 2005.

He is a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength & Conditioning Association, and has been certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association. He is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Council on Exercise.

Al Tiffany

BASKETBALL EQUIPMENT MANAGER
MARYLAND '95
FOURTH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Al Tiffany is in his fourth season at his alma mater to serve as the equipment manager for the men's basketball team. He is responsible for ordering and issuing game uniforms and practice gear for the Terps, as well as coordinating laundry services for the team at home and on the road.

This season, he has coordinated the Maryland basketball team's transition with its new exclusive apparel provider, Under Armour.

Tiffany came to Maryland from the U.S. Naval Academy, where he served for five years in the athletics department on the equipment staff. A former student basketball manager for four years while at Maryland, Tiffany was the head basketball manager in his senior year. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Maryland in 1995.

Tiffany also directs the equipment needs for all teams at Comcast Center, including women's basketball, wrestling, volleyball and softball.

Matthew Lisiewski

VIDEO DIRECTOR
FLORIDA '02
THIRD YEAR AT MARYLAND

Matthew Lisiewski enters his third season as video coordinator for the men's basketball program. Lisiewski is responsible for producing all scouting video, film exchange, and recruiting videos. In addition, he is responsible for post-season tournament tapes, fulfilling media requests for archived footage and assists with the postseason banquet highlight video. Lisiewski also assists with the Gary Williams golf outing and summer basketball camp.

Prior to joining the Terrapins for the 2006-07 season, Lisiewski spent two years as video coordinator and head manager with Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. In addition to his duties with film exchange and scouting video, he served as co-director of the Mustangs' summer camps and handled all equipment needs for the men's basketball program. Lisiewski was responsible for set-up prior to practices and individual workouts. He also coordinated shootarounds for opposing teams during his two years with the Mustangs.

Lisiewski is a 2002 graduate of the University of Florida, where he earned his bachelor's degree in telecommunications. He interned with CNN in Atlanta, Ga., and worked for the Gator Radio Network during his time at Florida. After completing his degree, he spent a year working for Fox SportsNet in Los Angeles. A native of The Woodlands, Texas, Lisiewski has worked summer camps at Clemson, Florida, Georgia Tech, Houston, South Carolina, South Florida, Texas, Texas A&M and UCLA.

Cleo Long-Thomas

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH
21ST YEAR AT MARYLAND

Cleo Long-Thomas is in her 19th season as the administrative assistant to head coach Gary Williams and her 21st year overall at the University of Maryland. She coordinates the professional schedules of Coach Williams and assists the coaching staff. In addition, she is responsible for the overall administration and the day-to-day managerial duties of the basketball office.

Long-Thomas coordinates Williams' schedule for departmental meetings, out-of-town speaking engagements and appearances. She also coordinates travel arrangements for the entire coaching staff and is responsible for all of the senior day activities at the final home game of each season. In the postseason, Long-Thomas plans and coordinates the Terps' annual honors banquet including all invitations, decorations, seating and banquet room setup. The original administrative coordinator of the Gary Williams Basketball Camp, Long-Thomas still assists with day-to-day camp activities such as application and registration.

Long-Thomas is the proud parent of three children: Tyrone, 40, Jabari, 34, and Raven, 25. Tyrone and his wife Yolanda have given Long-Thomas two grandchildren, T.J., 12, and Jovan, 8.

Kenny Beaver

SECOND YEAR AT MARYLAND

Kenny Beaver enters his second season as Maryland's administrative assistant with the men's basketball program after having served as a team manager the previous four seasons. In his new role with the basketball staff, Beaver will work closely with Cleo Long-Thomas and Troy Wainwright, assisting in the daily operations of the program. Beaver will supervise the team managers, assist with travel plans and hotel accommodations for the team and serve as a liaison with the facilities and operations office.

ERIC HAYES

6-4 • 185 • JUNIOR, 2V • GUARD
DUMFRIES, VA. • POTOMAC

Gary Williams On Eric Hayes:

"As a junior, he'll be expected to be one of our key players this year. We're looking for Eric to play a greater offensive role."

On Hayes:

Started 30 games in the backcourt as a sophomore and averaged 33 minutes per game... excellent long-range shooter, has hit 39 percent of 3-pointers in his career... equally adept at running the break or executing the half-court offense... son of a coach who understands the game.

As a Sophomore (2007-08):

SEAN MOSLEY

6-4 • 210 • FRESHMAN, HS • GUARD
BALTIMORE, MD. • ST. FRANCES ACADEMY

Gary Williams On Shane Mosley:
"Sean was the Player of the Year in Baltimore. He has a great opportunity to be an immediate contributor as a freshman to our basketball program."

On Mosley:

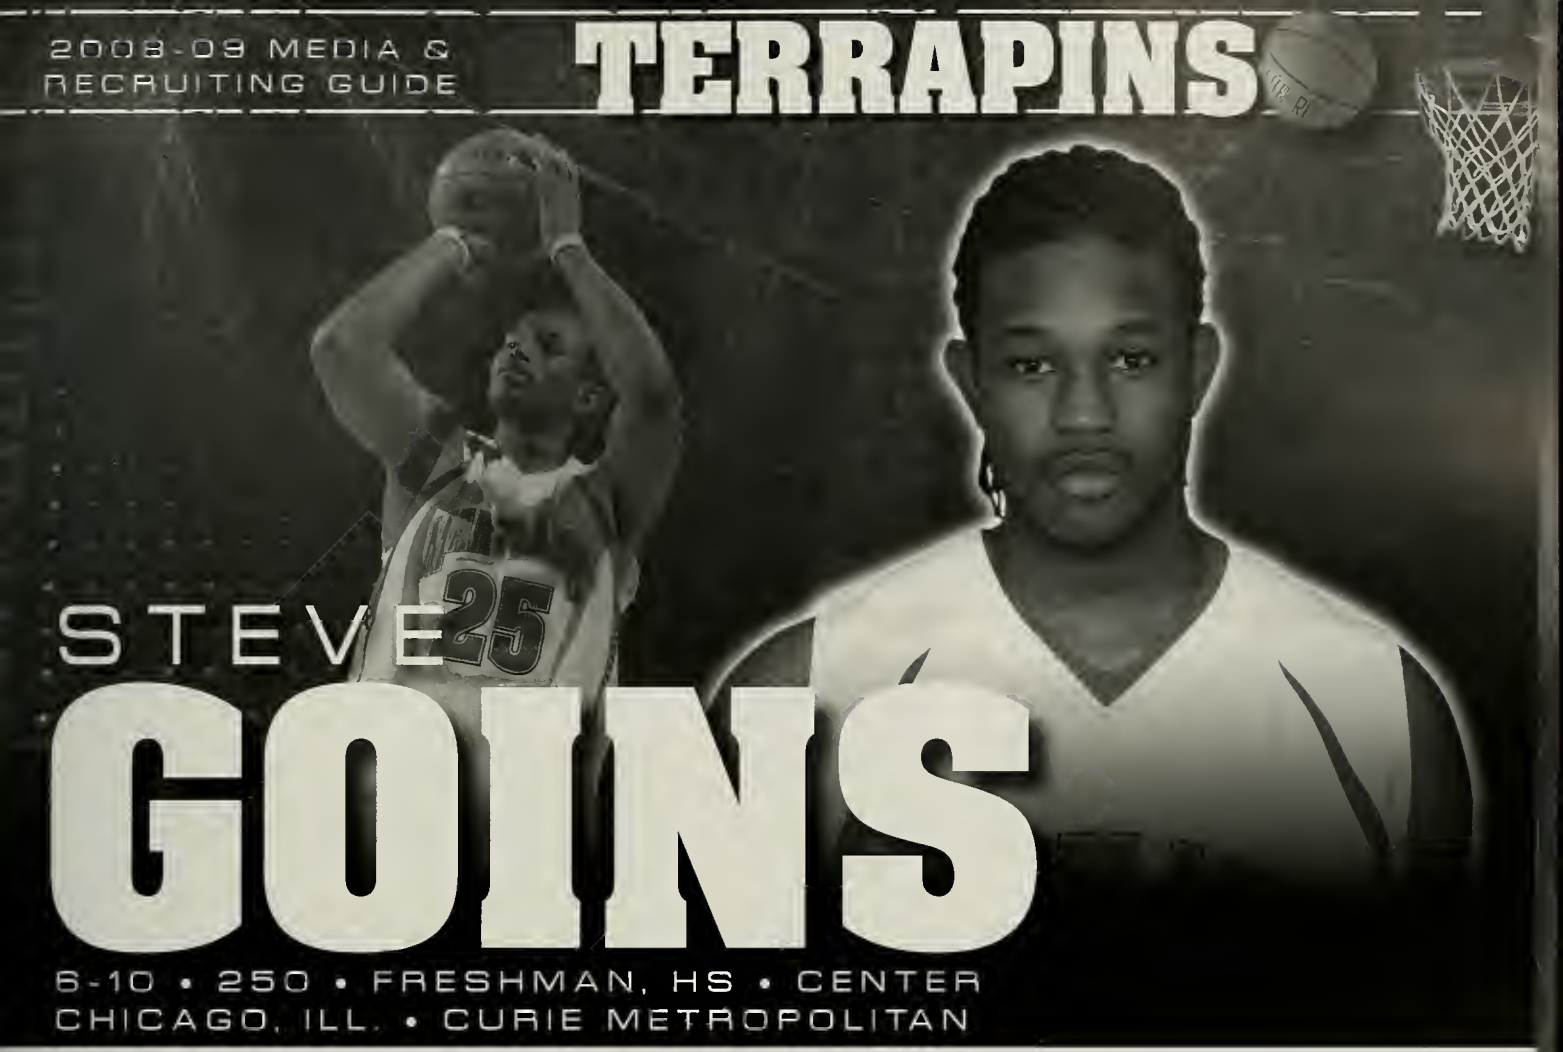
One of the top freshmen to arrive in College Park in some time... at 6-foot-4, has good size for a guard and can beat a defense in a number of ways... outstanding scorer and ball-handler whose experience and maturity level belies his youth.

At St. Frances Academy:

Ranked the No. 62 player in the nation and the 11th-best shooting guard by Rivals.com... ranked the No. 5 shooting guard in the nation by Scout.com... named Player of the Year by the Baltimore Sun... one of two players in Maryland high-school history to be named All-Met for four years... named the 2003 Gatorade Player of the Year in Maryland... finished his career as the second-leading scorer in Maryland high school basketball with 2,433 points... a four-year starter for the Panthers... averaged 24.2 points, 7.5 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.1 steals per game as a senior, helping his team post a 24-1 record en route to the Baltimore Catholic League championship... shot 55 percent from the field and 84 percent from the free throw line as a senior... BCL Tournament MVP as a senior... named to the All-Tournament team of the 2003 Capital Classic after posting 18 points, six assists and four rebounds... had 15 points, five rebounds and six assists in the 2003 Charm City Classic, earning All-Tournament status... as a junior, averaged 23.5 points, 8.3 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 3.9 steals per game... All-BCL selection as a junior... posted 19.5 points and 6.0 rebounds per game as a sophomore... chose Maryland over Clemson, Florida State and Syracuse... born 3/14/85 in Baltimore... coached by William Wells.

Personal:

Sean Tarun Mosley... born March 14, 1989 in Baltimore... son of Tara and Richard Mosley Sr.... worked on his speed and shooting in the off-season... pretended to be Michael Jordan playing sports as a kid... would cast Chris Rock in the lead role in a movie about his life... enrolled in letters and sciences..



STEVE GOINS

6-10 • 250 • FRESHMAN, HS • CENTER
CHICAGO, ILL. • CURIE METROPOLITAN

Gary Williams On Steve Goins:
"Steve is 6-foot-9 and 260 pounds and doesn't have much experience, but he is talented. The amount he'll play will be determined by his conditioning. It's a big step up for Steve to get to a college level conditioning-wise."

On Goins:

Listed by many recruiting websites as the top "sleeper" prospect out of the Chicago metro area... has good size at 6-foot-10, 250 pounds, but can step out and shoot... began to realize his potential during his senior season in high school.

At Curie Metropolitan:

Ranked the No. 27 center in the nation by Scout.com after blossoming as a senior... rated a three-star prospect by the recruiting web site... averaged 14 points, 11.5 rebounds and four blocks as a senior on a team that had balanced scoring... had two games in which he was a block shy of posting a triple-double... tabbed as a "late bloomer" and a "sleeper" by coaches in the Chicago metropolitan area, blossomed after transferring from Leo HS to Curie... good low-block scorer, but can also be a spot-up shooter... chose Maryland over South Florida ... high school coach Mike Oliver says his best basketball is ahead of him".

Personal:

Steve C. Goins... born July 20, 1990 in Chicago... parents are Tracy Reed-Goins and Steve Goins... enjoys listening to music before each game... lists Carmelo Anthony as his sports hero... enjoys drawing and is considering a career in drawing or computer graphics after basketball... enrolled in letters and sciences

About the ACC

The Tradition

John Swofford,
ACC Commissioner

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 56th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 109 national championships, including 57 in women's competition and 52 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 145 times in men's competition and 92 times in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With North Carolina's victory over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured 10 NCAA basketball championships, including six over the last 18 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1939. With an impressive 85-43 mark over the past 10 years, ACC teams have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 329-164 for a sterling .667 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

In the 24 years of the current 64-team field, the ACC has produced 22 Final Four teams, an average of almost one per year and five more than any other conference.

Since the 1985 NCAA Tournament when the field was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 233-115 (.670) NCAA record, including 63"Sweet 16" appearances and 22 Final Four berths - all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 63 of the 120 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Following their title run in 2005, North Carolina's Tar Heels lead all ACC schools with four NCAA basketball championships to their credit. Duke has claimed three national titles, NC State two and Maryland one. The Tar Heels have captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The ACC has 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins in four of the last eight years and 13 times overall and the league has not posted a losing record in NCAA Tournament play since 1987. The conference's 19-year non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play is tops among all conferences.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 37 consensus All-Americans - 17 more than any other conference and has accounted for 25 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans (37-of-146).

Seven of the last 12 and nine of the last 16 consensus National Players of the Year have come from the ACC. Since 1975, the ACC has had 16 consensus national players of the year - 13 more than any other conference. Nine of the ACC's 16 National Players of the Year were unanimous selections.

A year ago the ACC led all conferences with 53 players on NBA rosters. In addition, over the past three years 33 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including 15 in 2006, eight in 2007 and 10 last years.

This past June the ACC had four players selected in the annual NBA draft. The ACC has had the most, or tied for the most, first round draft picks in four of the past seven years and in 10 of the last 16. Since 1986, the ACC has had 89 first round selections (17 more than any other conference) and has had at least one first round selection in 20 consecutive NBA drafts.

In 2007, the ACC became the first conference in NCAA history to have 10 teams finish the season with 20 or more wins. In addition, 10 ACC teams took part in post-season play, including an ACC record seven NCAA Tournament teams.

For the first time in league history, the ACC surpassed the 2.4 million mark in attendance in 2006-07. The 12 league schools totaled 2,435,441 over 213 regular season games and six ACC Tournament sessions.

For the third consecutive year, the ACC surpassed the 2.2 million mark in basketball attendance in 2008, with the 12 league teams totaling 2,355,822 over 203 regular-season games and six tournament session.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by the league's regional and national television exposure. A record-setting 285 television appearances involving ACC teams, highlight the 2007-08 basketball schedule, including 162 appearances on national television networks.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2008-09 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.

2007-08 REVIEW

THIS IS

MARYLAND

BASKETBALL

2007-08 Review Notebook

- The Terrapins made their 15th consecutive postseason appearance by advancing to the second round of the 2008 MasterCard National Invitation Tournament. Maryland finished the season 19-15, marking the 12th straight season the Terps have won at least 19 games.
- Maryland went 8-8 in the ACC, marking the 15th season the Terrapins have won at least seven league games. It is the third longest streak of at least seven league wins in conference history.
- The Terrapins posted an 82-80 win at top-ranked North Carolina on January 19. Maryland is now tied for second in NCAA history with 10 wins over the No. 1 team in the nation. Coach Gary Williams ranks first among all active head coaches with seven career wins over top-ranked teams. Maryland now has 15 wins over top-10 teams in the last six years.
- Maryland was among the nation's best defensive teams. The Terps led the ACC and were fifth nationally in blocked shots (6.6 bpg). Maryland led the conference and was 20th in the nation in field goal percentage defense (.395).
- The Terrapins made at least one 3-point shot in each of the team's 34 games. Maryland has made at least one 3-point shot in 320 consecutive games.
- Head coach Gary Williams is the eighth-winningest active head coach in Division I men's basketball. Maryland's 70-65 victory over Boston College on February 6 gave Williams his 600th career win. Only seven other active head coaches in Division I have 600 career wins.
- The Terrapins blocked 222 shots, the third highest single-season total in school history.
- Maryland set a new school record for total home attendance, as 341,050 fans packed into Comcast Center this season to watch the Terrapins.
- Senior James Gist joined elite company as he became just one of five players in school history to record at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 200 blocked shots. Gist finished his career with 1,414 points, 783 rebounds and 231 blocks.
- As a senior, Gist was named second team All-ACC and was named to the ACC All-Defensive team. He was second in the ACC in blocked shots (2.33 bpg) and was fourth in rebounding (7.9 rpg). Gist was third in the league in field goal percentage (.496) and was eighth in scoring (15.9 ppg). He was second in the league in defensive rebounds (6.1 rpg).
- Greivis Vasquez finished the year with 231 assists, the third-highest single-season output in school history. Vasquez led the league with 6.8 assists per game, while his 231 helpers was the second-highest output among sophomores at Maryland. He tied the school record with 15 assists against NC State. His 62 3-pointers were a school-best among sophomores at Maryland.
- A second-team All-ACC selection, Vasquez was fourth in the conference in scoring (17.0 ppg), 20th in rebounding (5.7 rpg), seventh in defensive rebounds (4.8 rpg), 10th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.55) and second in the league in minutes played (37.0).
- Eric Hayes finished the season with 138 assists, the eighth-highest total for sophomores at Maryland. Hayes finished the season sixth in the ACC in assists per game (4.6 apg) and was fourth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.89).

Game #1

NORTH FLORIDA 50
MARYLAND 79

Nov. 11, 2007 • College Park, Md.
O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Greivis Vasquez scored 18 and Maryland defeated North Florida in the first round of the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic.

Maryland advanced to the regional championship game against Hampton, which defeated Tulsa, 72-55, in the other first-round game in College Park.

The Terrapins committed 14 first-half turnovers, including 11 through the opening 14:04. But Maryland held North Florida scoreless for a stretch of 7:56 in the first half, creating a nine-point lead with a 12-0 run.

The Terrapins held a 43-26 rebounding edge over the Ospreys. Vasquez, Tucker and Bambale Osby recorded seven rebounds each.

Maryland shot 64.5 percent from the field after halftime and ran away in the second half, thanks in part to an 11-0 run over a stretch of 3:05. Adrian Bowie scored 12 points, all but one in the second half.

North Florida was led by Tom Hammonds and Justin Cecil, both of whom scored 14 points. Brent Wood gave the Ospreys seven first-half points off the bench, but was held scoreless in the second half.

Vasquez chipped in with six assist on his 18-point, seven-rebound night. Maryland also got 15 points from Eric Hayes (8 assists) and Bambale Osby (7-for-11 FTs) and a dozen points off the bench from Adrian Bowie.

Nov. 12, 2007 • College Park, Md.
O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Greivis Vasquez scored 10 of Maryland's final 11 points, James Gist had 16 points and 12 rebounds in his belated season debut, and the Terrapins defeated Hampton Monday night to advance to the semifinal round of the CBE Classic.

The Terrapins (2-0) gave up a 14-point lead in the second half before rallying behind Vasquez, who finished with 21.

Vasquez, a sophomore guard, gave Maryland the lead for good by hitting a 3-pointer with 1:17 to go. Then, after Hampton's Jordan Brooks missed two foul shots, Vasquez sank two free throws with 33 seconds left for a 67-63 lead.

Rashad West scored 23 points for Hampton (1-1). Coach Kevin Nickelberry was ejected in the first half after receiving two technical fouls in the span of 61 seconds.

Maryland led 56-42 before the Pirates used a 12-3 spurt to cut the deficit to five. The Terrapins missed a chance to pull away when center Bambale Osby missed six straight free throws, and a 7-0 run pulled Hampton even for the first time since the opening tap.

After a foul shot by Vasquez put Maryland back in front, a dunk by Donte Harrison gave the Pirates their first lead. But the Terrapins outscored Hampton 8-1 the rest of the way.

Gist had 11 points and seven rebounds in the first half to help the Terrapins take a 39-29 lead.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – James Gist scored a career-high 27 points, including two free throws that put Maryland ahead for good in overtime, and the Terrapins defeated Northeastern Thursday night.

Gist's foul shots put Maryland up 70-69 with 50 seconds left. After a Northeastern turnover, Eric Hayes made two free throws for the Terrapins, whose final six points came at the line.

Bambale Osby had 16 points, 13 rebounds and six blocks for Maryland (3-0). He was 14-for-20 at the line and 1-9 from the field.

Matt Janning led the Huskies (0-2) with a career-high 26 points, Manny Adako scored 15 and Nkem Ojougboh contributed 13 rebounds.

After Northeastern closed to 60-58 with 28.7 seconds remaining in regulation, Landon Milbourne made one of two free throws for Maryland. Adako then nailed a 3-pointer from the corner with 9 seconds left, forcing overtime with his first career attempt from beyond the arc in 28 starts.

Northeastern trailed 38-32 early in the second half before taking the lead with a 14-2 run.

Gist scored 14 points and Greivis Vasquez had six assists to help Maryland take a 28-22 halftime lead.

MARYLAND 59

Nov. 19, 2007 • Kansas City, Mo.
O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic • Sprint Center

KANSAS CITY, Mo. -- Kevin Love scored 18 points and grabbed 16 rebounds, helping second-ranked UCLA overcome a sloppy first half in a victory over Maryland on Monday night in the semifinals of the CBE Classic.

UCLA (4-0) had just eight scholarship players in uniform due to injuries to several key players and it showed early with numerous turnovers and bad shots. But the Bruins, led by Love's crisp passing against Maryland's press, settled things down by the second half.

UCLA shot just 37 percent, including 4-of-13 from 3-point range, but out-rebounded the Terrapins 44-29 to move onto the championship game Tuesday night.

Maryland had 21 turnovers and was just 1-for-11 on 3-pointers, keeping its streak of at least one 3-pointer alive at 289 games when Eric Hayes connected with 28 seconds left.

Greivis Vasquez had 18 points and Bambale Osby added 13 for the Terrapins.

Vasquez also led the Terrapins on the boards with six.

The Terrapins trailed 43-23 with 16:29 left in the game, but closed the margin through the remainder of the second half. Maryland pulled within 47-37 with 8:34 left on a jumper by Landon Milbourne, but the Bruins extended their lead over the next two minutes, pushing it back to 15 at 54-39 with 6:26 to play.

Maryland's smallest deficit down the stretch was eight points, at 67-59 when Hayes hit his 3-pointer.

Game #5

MISSOURI 84

Nov. 20, 2007 • Kansas City, Mo.
O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic • Sprint Center

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - Leo Lyons had 23 points and 11 rebounds, and Missouri swarmed Maryland into numerous mistakes for a victory over the Terrapins on Tuesday night in the consolation game of the CBE Classic.

Missouri (4-1) twice rallied from double-digit leads in the semifinals against No. 10 Michigan State, using their frenetic defense to rattle the Spartans into 17 turnovers. The Tigers' pressure had the same effect early against Maryland, which had 12 turnovers in the first half, including two at the start of a 10-0 run that put Missouri up 39-29.

Maryland (3-2) never made it all the way back from the early deficit thanks to all the turnovers, finishing with 22 that led to 28 points for Missouri.

It didn't help that the Terps had another rough night shooting from the outside.

Maryland 1-for-15 from 3-point range, barely extending its streak of making at least one 3-pointer to 290 games when Landon Milbourne dropped one in with 22 seconds.

Greivis Vasquez led four Terrapins who scored in double figures, scoring 17 points, including a 9-for-10 performance at the foul line. Vasquez also led the Terrapins with eight rebounds.

James Gist had 12 points, Bambale Osby finished with 11 and Eric Hayes had 10 points, seven rebounds and six assists.

Gist also blocked four shots for Maryland.

LEHIGH 51
MARYLAND 72

Nov. 23, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) _ Maryland backed up another solid defensive effort with a breakthrough performance on the other end.

Greivis Vasquez scored 17 of his 22 points after halftime, and the Terrapins pulled away to a victory over Lehigh on Friday.

The Terrapins (4-2) used a 15-0 run to turn a precarious 5-point lead into a 58-38 advantage with 9:37 to go. Vasquez scored seven points during the stretch, which lasted more than seven minutes.

James Gist had 11 points and a team-high eight rebounds for Maryland, which snapped a two-game skid. The Terrapins played without center Bambale Osby, who had a stomach virus. His replacement, freshman Braxton Dupree, scored 14 in his first college start.

Rob Keefer and Matt Szalachowski each scored 12 for Lehigh (2-3). The Mountain Hawks hung with the Terrapins before opening the second half by going 3-for-15 from the floor with seven turnovers.

Maryland led 43-38 before Gist made a follow-shot. After a stretch in which neither team scored for nearly two minutes, Vasquez sank a 3-pointer from the right corner to make it 48-38 with 13:51 remaining.

Vasquez then hit a jumper, Adrian Bowie followed with a layup and Gist scored on an alley-oop. Baskets by Vasquez and Jerome Burney completed the 15-point blitz.

ILLINOIS 61
MARYLAND 69

Nov. 28, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Big Ten/ACC Challenge • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Eric Hayes scored a career-high 18 points, including four clutch free throws in the final 24 seconds, and Maryland held on to beat Illinois Wednesday night in the Big Ten-ACC Challenge.

James Gist had 12 points and nine rebounds for the Terrapins (5-2) and Greivis Vasquez finished with 10 assists.

Calvin Brock led Illinois (4-2) with 13 points. The Fighting Illini shot only 33 percent and went 9-for-29 from 3-point range.

After Landon Milbourne made two free throws to give Maryland a 64-60 lead with 1 minute left, Brian Randle made one of two foul shots for the Illini. Hayes then sank two at the line, Vasquez made one and Hayes capped the scoring with two free throws with 8.9 seconds to go.

Seconds earlier, fans in the crowd began chanting "ACC! ACC!"

Maryland trailed 42-39 before Gist scored in the lane and Hayes hit a 3-pointer to spark a 10-2 run that made it 49-44. Freshman Cliff Tucker capped the spree with a 3-pointer and a driving layup.

After Randle scored for Illinois, Hayes made a driving layup and Tucker added a jumper to give the Terrapins their biggest lead, 53-46 with 8:24 left.

Minutes later, successive dunks by Vasquez and freshman Jerome Burney made it 57-49. But 2-pointers by Shaun Pruitt and Trent Meacham got Illinois to 62-58, and a basket by Pruitt cut it to 62-60 with 1:15 to go.

The first half, which featured nine ties and eight lead changes, ended appropriately at 32-all.

Game #8

VCU 85
MARYLAND 76

Dec. 2, 2007 • Washington, D.C.
BB&T Classic • Verizon Center

WASHINGTON (AP) - Virginia Commonwealth's Jamal Shuler scored 30 points as the Rams downed Maryland Sunday night in the BB&T Classic.

Eric Maynor had 25 points and eight rebounds for the Rams (4-3), who took the lead for good midway through the second half.

Shuler, a 6-foot-3 senior guard, went 10-for-19 from the floor, including 6 of 11 from 3-point range. His previous career best was 25.

Greivis Vasquez scored 19 and Bambale Osby had 17 points and 10 rebounds for Maryland (5-3). The Terrapins outrebounded the Rams 40-30 and outscored them 30-24 at the foul line, but shot only 37 percent and committed 19 turnovers.

Maynor hit a 3-pointer to give VCU a 69-61 lead with 3:56 remaining. Maryland got within five points on four occasions, but the Rams scored their final 14 points at the free throw line.

The Terrapins led 39-38 before Maynor scored seven points around a basket by Vasquez to put the Rams up 45-41. After an exchange of field goals, Eric Hayes hit a 3-pointer and Landon Milbourne made two foul shots to spark a 9-2 run that gave the Terrapins a 52-49 lead.

But VCU came back with seven straight points, including five by reserve Joey Rodriguez, and a 3-pointer by Shuler gave him a new career high and put the Rams ahead 60-54 with 8:13 to go.

Shuler scored 19 points on 7-for-9 shooting, and VCU overcame a 17-9 rebounding deficit to reach halftime tied at 34.

MORGAN STATE 65
MARYLAND 89

Dec. 6, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) – Eric Hayes scored a career-high 19 points, Greivis Vasquez had 17 points and 11 assists, and Maryland pulled away to a victory over in-state foe Morgan State on Thursday night.

Hayes, a sophomore guard, went 7-for-11 from the floor and made five 3-pointers for the Terrapins (6-3). Hayes fueled a 10-1 run that made it 57-45 with 12:48 remaining.

James Gist scored 18 to top the 1,000-mark for his career and Bambale Osby had 16 for Maryland.

Reggie Holmes led the Bears (4-4) with 20 points and Jamal Holmes added 16. Morgan State is 0-5 against the Terrapins in a series that had been dormant since 1994.

The Bears lost by only four points on the road to both Connecticut and Miami, but were no match for Maryland.

Early in the second half, Hayes made two 3-pointers and Vasquez connected from beyond the arc in an 11-4 spurt that gave Maryland a 47-35 lead. The Bears responded with 7 straight points, but Hayes made a layup and a trey before Vasquez hit a short jumper to put the Terrapins up by 10.

After a Morgan State free throw, Vasquez made a 3-pointer. Minutes later, a 9-2 spree put the Terps ahead by 15.

Maryland led 36-29 at halftime.

After the Terrapins scored the game's first 8 points, Smith made four baskets in a 13-5 surge that tied it at 13. Maryland had eight turnovers and shot 39 percent in the opening 10 minutes.

The Terrapins then took a 25-20 lead before Holmes hit a 3-pointer, Marquise Kately scored off an alley-oop pass from Smith and Gene Johnson made a layup to give Morgan State its only lead, 27-25.

BOSTON COLLEGE 81
MARYLAND 78

Dec. 9, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Tyrese Rice scored 19 points to lead the Eagles (7-1, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) to a victory over Maryland. His final two points came on a pair of free throws with four seconds to play that clinched the win for the Eagles.

John Oates also hit a free throw with one second left for the final margin.

Maryland (6-4, 0-1) trailed 71-62 with just 1:28 to play, but hit five straight 3-pointers to close within 78-77.

Freshman Corey Raji came off the bench and added 17 points, 12 coming during a key stretch midway through the second half that saw the Eagles rally from six points down into a 55-49 lead with 6:53 to play.

Maryland was led by James Gist, who had 18 points and 11 rebounds for the second double-double of the season and 10th of his career.

Greivis Vasquez had 11 points, five rebounds and six assists, but three fouls just seconds apart and his subsequent fouling out with 10:30 left resulted in a seven-point swing during a decisive 22-7 run by the Eagles.

The foul and technical led to four free throws tying it at 43. Boston College eventually pushed its lead to 59-50 with about six minutes to go.

After making just one 3-pointer the entire game, Maryland made five in the final 78 seconds, rallying from 10 behind to cut the deficit to one with seconds remaining.

OHIO 61
MARYLAND 55

Dec. 12, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Greivis Vasquez led Maryland with 13 points and eight rebounds, while Landon Milbourne chipped in with 11 points in just 13 minutes but Ohio University handed Maryland its fourth non-conference home loss in the last 19 seasons on Wednesday night.

Maryland was 131-3 at home against competition outside the Atlantic Coast Conference since coach Gary Williams took over the program in 1989, including 50-2 since moving into the Comcast Center in 2002. The losses were to Coppin State in 1989, Florida in 2002 and Manhattan in the 2006 NIT.

Last night, the Terrapins cut a 17-point deficit to 58-55 with 50.9 seconds left, but could not complete the comeback.

Leon Williams went 7-for-8 from the floor, and Jerome Tillman scored 20 for the Bobcats (6-2), who never trailed. Ohio led by 11 at halftime, expanded the margin to 15 with 16 minutes left and held on at the finish.

Vasquez led the Terrapins (6-5) with 13 points, though he missed 11 of his 16 shots from the floor. James Gist scored eight of Maryland's first 14 points.

The Bobcats led 38-29 before a tip-in by Leon Williams launched a 10-2 run that made it 48-31 with 11:18 remaining. It was 58-46 before a 3-pointer by Vasquez, a dunk by Adrian Bowie and a jumper by Vasquez got the Terrapins within five with 3 minutes left.

Williams and Tillman had 9 points apiece, and Ohio frustrated the Terrapins with a tightly packed zone in taking a 34-23 halftime lead.

AMERICAN 67
MARYLAND 59

Dec. 22, 2007 • College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Greivis Vasquez scored a career-high 28 points for Maryland while going 6-for-9 from 3-point range, but American University limited Maryland to five first-half baskets, got 18 points from Derrick Mercer and posted a victory Saturday at Comcast Center.

Coming off a nine-day layoff, the Terrapins shot just 36 percent, committed 13 turnovers and were outrebounded 40-33.

Bryce Simon 17 for the Eagles (7-5). American led by 12 with 11 minutes left and never let the margin shrink below 5 points.

Maryland senior James Gist, who was averaging 14 points a game, fouled out with 5:16 left after scoring only three.

Maryland shot 5-for-24 from the floor in the first half, went more than 10 minutes without a basket and trailed 25-20 at halftime.

After a free throw by Bambale Osby got the Terrapins to 25-21, Garrison Carr drilled a 3-pointer and Simon hit a jumper to stretch American's lead to nine points.

Both teams shot poorly at the outset. A pair of 3-pointers by Eric Hayes staked the Terrapins to an early 8-2 lead, but Maryland made only three of its first 16 shots and was outrebounded 16-8 over the opening 10 minutes.

DELAWARE 46
MARYLAND 76

Dec. 28, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - James Gist bounced back to score 18 points and grab 10 rebounds, and Maryland snapped a three-game losing streak with a rout of Delaware on Friday night.

Greivis Vasquez scored 18 points and Bambale Osby added 14 for the Terrapins (7-6), who were coming off losses at home to Boston College, Ohio and American.

Gist, a 6-foot-9 senior forward, led Marylnad against Delaware with 8-for-13 shooting from the floor. He had 12 points in the first half, including 10 in a 23-2 run that put Maryland up 33-12.

It was 40-23 at halftime, and the Terrapins coasted to the finish to improve to 132-4 in regular season non-conference home games under coach Gary Williams. Half those losses came in Maryland's previous two games.

Marc Egerson scored 17 points for Delaware (4-7). The Blue Hens were seeking their first three-game winning streak since January 2005; instead, they lost their eighth straight against ACC teams since the start of the 1995-96 season.

Egerson scored 9 of Delaware's first 10 points, including a dunk that tied the game at 10. Gist followed with two foul shots and a 12-foot jumper, sparking a 13-0 run that included four points from Osby and a 3-pointer by Vasquez.

After a basket by Brian Johnson ended the Blue Hens' scoring drought of nearly seven minutes, Gist made a follow-shot, a layup and a dunk during a 10-0 spurt that put the Terrapins up by 21.

SAVANNAH STATE 48
MARYLAND 75

Jan. 2, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Balanced scoring and strong defense helped carry the Maryland Terrapins to their second straight victory, a triumph over Savannah State Wednesday night at Comcast Center.

Maryland's four primary scorers average in double figures and all reached that standard during the the lopsided victory. The team's two leading scorers, guard Greivis Vasquez and forward James Gist, matched each other with 13 points and six rebounds apiece.

Vasquez also handed out six assists, which matched the total of backcourt mate Eric Hayes. Hayes scored 12 points for Maryland (8-6), while senior Bambale Osby also had 13 points. Much of that production was set up by Maryland's defense.

The Terrapins forced Savannah State (7-12) into 24 turnovers and were credited with 12 steals. Savannah State's point total was the lowest by a Maryland opponent since an 87-38 victory over Maryland-Eastern Shore in January 2004.

Any suspense was eliminated early. After Savannah State's Lazarius Coleman popped in a 3-pointer to open the scoring, Maryland ran off the next 15 points of the game. The Tigers cut the margin to 17-7, but then Maryland ran off the game's next 11 points. Greivis Vasquez capped the run with a three-point play on a drive to the basket.

CHARLOTTE 72

Jan. 5, 2008 • Charlotte, N.C.
Bobcats Arena

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - James Gist scored 25 points and hit the clinching free throw with 5.6 seconds left as Maryland held off a second-half rally by Charlotte for a win on Saturday.

Greivis Vasquez added 17 of his 24 points in the first half for the Terrapins (9-6), who won their third straight game since home losses to Ohio and American.

Charlotte (8-5) twice got the deficit to two in the closing moments, and Leemire Goldwire missed a tying 3-point attempt. Gist then hit 1 of 2 free throws to put it away. The 49ers closed a 21-point deficit.

Lamont Mack scored 18 points and Goldwire added 13 on 3-of-17 shooting for the 49ers, who had their two-game winning streak snapped.

In its first true road game of the season, Maryland stormed to a 53-32 lead on Gist's 3-pointer with 15:31 left. Charlotte outscored Maryland 29-11 over the next 10 minutes.

DiJuan Harris' driving layup made it 64-61. Vasquez's 3 and Gist's layup got the lead to 71-63, but Charlotte rallied again, getting the gap down to three on Mack's layup with 2:45 left.

Charlotte got the deficit down to two on Mack's two free throws with 19.2 seconds left. Vasquez then hit one free throw before Goldwire, who shot 2-of-12 from 3, missed another long range shot.

Williams again tinkered with his rotation Saturday and the Terps carried their solid play from the last two games early on to Charlotte Bobcats Arena, site of the ACC Tournament in March.

Vasquez's three-point play, baseline jumper, 3-pointer and two free throws in a personal 10-0 run put Maryland ahead 32-19.

Game #16

HOLY CROSS 48
MARYLAND 73

Jan. 8, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK - James Gist scored 22 points as Maryland routed a depleted Holy Cross squad Tuesday night.

The Terps (10-6) were playing without starting guard Eric Hayes, but the Crusaders (9-4) were without several players including starters Pat Doherty and Alex Vander Baan.

By the time the first 12 minutes were over, however, it didn't much matter for either side after Maryland ran off a 20-0 run to put the Crusaders away early.

It was Maryland's fourth win in a row after three losses and their final non-conference game of the season.

Hayes did not start due to an ankle injury. Freshman Cliff Tucker started in his place and had 10 points and 4 assists, both career highs.

Gist also led Maryland with nine rebounds. Greivis Vasquez had 17 points, six assists and six rebounds and Landon Milbourne had a career-high 12 points for Maryland.

For Holy Cross, Tim Clifford scored 15 points and had 8 rebounds to lead Holy Cross. Adam May had 14 points.

Holy Cross scored the game's first five points, but then went more than 10 minutes without scoring a point as Maryland built a 20-5 lead.

The Crusaders, who missed 14 straight shots and committed eight turnovers over that stretch, finally broke the scoreless stretch with 8:16 to play on a pair of free throws by May.

After Vasquez answered with a 3-pointer, May scored the Crusaders' first field goal in more than 11 minutes with 7:02 left in the half.

MARYLAND 66
VIRGINIA TECH 67

Jan. 12, 2008 • Blacksburg, Va.
Cassell Coliseum

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) -- Jeff Allen hit a free throw with 12.4 seconds to play Saturday and Virginia Tech rallied to beat Maryland in its ACC home opener.

The Hokies (10-6, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) trailed almost throughout. They rallied five times in the second half to get even, but not until Allen made the first of two free throws did they move ahead, and Maryland got only one more shot.

Greivis Vasquez got off a 3-pointer from the top of the key, but the ball hit the back of the rim and the clock ran down before anyone regained possession for Maryland (10-7, 0-2).

Allen led the Hokies with 17 points and nine rebounds and A.D. Vassallo scored 16. Malcolm Delaney added 13 for the Hokies, including a 3-pointer with 51.4 seconds left.

James Gist led Maryland with 16 points and Bambale Osby had 14 points and 12 rebounds before fouling out in the final minute. Adrian Bowie added 12 and Vasquez had 10.

Vasquez gave Maryland a 61-59 lead with 3:14 to play with his first basket. After Vassallo's dunk tied it again, Gist had a tip-in and Vasquez followed with a spinning bank to give the Terrapins a 65-61 advantage. A free throw by Osby made it 66-61.

Hank Thorns started the Tech comeback with a baseline jumper and Delaney's 3-pointer from the key tied it with 51.4 seconds left.

Deron Washington then knocked the ball away from Gist and Allen was fouled under the basket. He made the first to give Tech the lead, but missed the second. The Terps were awarded possession after a scrum for the loose ball, setting up the last shot.

WAKE FOREST 64
MARYLAND 71

Jan. 15, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Greivis Vasquez scored 22 points, Bambale Osby had 16 points and 11 rebounds, and Maryland beat Wake Forest Tuesday night.

Freshman reserve Adrian Bowie had 10 points and eight rebounds for the Terrapins (11-7, 1-2).

Vasquez made half his 16 field-goal attempts, scored 15 points in the second half and finished with eight assists.

The Terrapins played a third straight game without starting guard Eric Hayes, who has a sprained ankle.

Ishmael Smith scored 16, James Johnson had 14 and Jeff Teague added 13 for the Demon Deacons (11-5, 1-2). The Demon Deacons went 5-for-30 from 3-point range.

Maryland led 41-36 before Vasquez followed his own miss with a layup. Seconds later, Vasquez flicked the ball away from Chas McFarland to Bowie, who was fouled and made both shots. Osby added a layup, and baskets by James Gist and Osby capped a 10-2 run that made it 51-38 with 11:23 remaining.

Smith then scored seven straight points to get Wake Forest within 6, but a 3-pointer by Maryland's Landon Milbourne and two free throws by Osby stemmed the surge.

The Demon Deacons fell behind 31-26 at halftime after shooting 29 percent, including 2-for-15 from beyond the arc.

Game #19

MARYLAND 82
#1/1 NORTH CAROLINA 80

Jan. 19, 2008 • Chapel Hill, N.C.
Smith Center

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Bambale Osby's layup with 21 seconds left helped Maryland stun North Carolina on Saturday, giving the Terrapins a shocking win that likely ended the formerly unbeaten Tar Heels' run atop the polls.

James Gist finished with 22 points and 13 rebounds for the Terrapins (12-7, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who lost an 11-point lead midway through the second half but still held on in a back-and-forth finish to win here for the first time in five years.

The Tar Heels (18-1, 3-1) – off to their best start in two decades – had been rolling to big victories behind their transition attack.

But the Terrapins played tough and physical defense on Tyler Hansbrough, cutting off the All-American and making the Tar Heels work hard elsewhere for good looks in a largely halfcourt game. Maryland also showed the fortitude to bounce back after North Carolina pushed ahead by four in the final 2-1/2 minutes.

After Wayne Ellington missed a 3-pointer and a driving shot, North Carolina could only watch as Hansbrough's last gasp 3-pointer bounced off the rim at the horn as the Terrapins ran to midcourt to celebrate.

Hansbrough had 17 points and 14 rebounds to lead North Carolina, which shot just 38 percent and went 7-for-23 from 3-point range. The Tar Heels were off to their best start since winning 21 in a row in the 1985-86 season, and came in averaging 98 points per game at home.

The Tar Heels fought back from a 52-41 deficit midway through the second half to take a 78-74 lead on a three-point play by Danny Green with 2 1/2 minutes left. But Greivis Vasquez answered with a runner in the lane followed by two free throws to tie it at 78.

Game #20

#3/4 DUKE 93
MARYLAND 84

Jan. 27, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Senior DeMarcus Nelson scored 19 of his 27 points in the second half to rally the Blue Devils to a victory Sunday night.

Gerald Henderson added 23 for Duke, which had not trailed by more than six points in any game before falling behind 51-42 at halftime. With Nelson leading the way, the Blue Devils (17-1, 5-0 ACC) turned in a surgical performance in a hostile environment over the final 20 minutes to earn their seventh straight win.

Duke shot 53 percent in the second half, outrebounded the Terrapins 22-15 and outscored Maryland 51-33.

James Gist scored 26 and Bambale Osby had 20 points and 15 rebounds, both career highs, for the Terrapins (12-8, 2-3). But it wasn't enough to provide Maryland with its sixth win in eight games against its rival.

Duke led by two before baskets by Henderson and Nelson ignited an 8-2 spurt that made it 83-75. A 3-pointer by Gist got Maryland to 84-81, but Nelson made a driving layup for a five-point cushion with 61 seconds to go. The Terrapins would get no closer than four points.

Despite forcing 13 turnovers and getting 16 points from Henderson, Duke trailed at halftime for the first time this season. The crowd was in a frenzy at the outset, and a quick start by the Terrapins only raised the volume. Maryland made its first four field-goal tries, including three straight layups by Osby, and a 3-pointer by Vasquez made it 11-5.

It was 29-25 before Landon Milbourne hit a 3-pointer to spark a 10-0 run that put Maryland back in front. Gist had two dunks during the 90-second spree.

A technical foul on the Duke bench helped the Terrapins close the half with a 9-2 flurry.

VIRGINIA 75
MARYLAND 85

Jan. 31, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) – Greivis Vasquez scored 25 points, James Gist had 17, and Maryland extended Virginia's road woes with a victory Wednesday night.

After facing Atlantic Coast Conference powers North Carolina and Duke in succession, the Terrapins (13-8, 3-3) had no problem against the last-place Cavaliers (11-8, 1-5). Maryland grabbed an 11-point lead in the opening three minutes, expanded the margin to 17 early in the second half and rolled to its seventh win in nine games.

Eric Hayes contributed 15 points and nine assists, and Landon Milbourne scored 13 to help Maryland coach Gary Williams earn his 598th career victory.

Sean Singletary scored 23 for Virginia, including 17 in the second half, to extend his ACC-best streak of reaching double figures to 41 straight games. But the Cavaliers lost their sixth straight ACC road game since defeating Maryland on Jan. 16, 2007.

Calvin Baker scored a career-high 17 points and Mamadi Diane had 16 for the Cavaliers, who have lost three in a row and six of seven overall.

The Terrapins used a 9-2 run after halftime to go up 52-35. Vasquez got it started with a 3-pointer, and reserve forward Dave Neal sandwiched two baskets around a pair of Virginia free throws before Milbourne capped the surge with two foul shots.

A dunk by Diane got the Cavaliers to 76-71 with two minutes left, but two free throws by Gist and a follow-shot by Bambale Osby sealed the win.

Game #22

MARYLAND 88
GEORGIA TECH 86

Feb. 2, 2008 • Atlanta, Ga.
Alexander Memorial Coliseum

ATLANTA - Bambale Osby scored 18 points, including two key free throws with 16.9 seconds left and Landon Milbourne added 16 points to lead five Maryland players in double figures and the Terrapins beat Georgia Tech Saturday in an Atlantic Coast Conference game, ending the Yellow Jackets' three-game winning streak.

Maryland (14-8, 4-3 ACC), winning its fourth in five games and eight of 10, also got 14 points from James Gist and Eric Hayes and Greivis Vasquez added 13.

Georgia Tech (10-10, 3-4) got within 85-82 on six straight points by Peacock with 1:05 left, then got the ball back when the Yellow Jackets' Alade Aminu blocked a layup by Vazquez with 35 seconds remaining.

Anthony Morrow badly missed a 3-point attempt to tie it with 19 seconds left and Osby made a pair of free throws - his only points of the second half - for an 87-82 lead with 16.9 seconds left.

Tech had another slim chance when Jeremis Smith scored a basket to get within 87-84 with 8.7 seconds left and Vazquez missed two free throws with 7.7 seconds left.

Tech's Causey was fouled with 2.5 seconds left and made the first to make it 87-85. He tried to miss the second on purpose but it hit the backboard and went in to make it 87-86. Vazquez was fouled and made one of two with a second left for the final of 88-86.

The Yellow Jackets fell behind by 12 again at the start of the second half as Gist scored five straight points for a 53-41 lead. But Tech managed to get back in it and trailed by only 65-63 with 12:11 left on a basket by Causey and never got closer than six until the final minute.

Game #23

MARYLAND 70
BOSTON COLLEGE 65

Feb. 6, 2008 • Chestnut Hill, Mass.
Conte Forum

BOSTON (AP) - Greivis Vasquez scored eight of his 25 points during a key second-half run to help Maryland beat Boston College Wednesday night, giving coach Gary Williams his 600th career victory.

It was the fifth win in six games for the surging Terrapins (15-8 overall, 5-3 Atlantic Coast Conference).

James Gist, the only other Terrapins' player in double figures, had 23 points.

Williams, in his 30th season overall and his 19th at Maryland, improved to 600-336. He is the Terrapins' all-time winningest coach, and eighth among active coaches.

John Oates went 5-for-5 from behind the 3-point line and scored a career-high 21 points for the Eagles (12-9, 3-5). BC has lost five straight.

The Eagles moved ahead for the first time since the game's opening minute, 39-36, on Tyrelle Blair's 3-point play 1:11 into the second half. The teams then traded leads seven times over the ensuing six minutes before Bambale Osby's put-back triggered Maryland's 10-0 run.

BC made a late charge, closing it to 66-65 on Tyrese Rice's 3-pointer with 1:38 to play, but Eric Hayes answered with his own 3-pointer just 29 seconds later. Gist hit one free throw in the closing seconds.

The Terrapins led 36-34 at halftime. BC relied on some effective long-range shooting to stay close in the first half. The Eagles hit 8 of their first 12 from 3-point range, with Oates going 5-for-5.

NC STATE 70
MARYLAND 84

Feb. 9, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - James Gist scored a career-high 30 points, Greivis Vasquez tied a school record with 15 assists, and Maryland used a strong second half to beat North Carolina State Saturday night.

The win was the fourth straight for the Terrapins (16-8, 6-3 ACC), who didn't take their first lead until Gist made a layup to make it 38-36 with 18:31 left. After the Wolfpack pulled even, Maryland scored 12 straight points to go up 50-38.

NC State (15-8, 4-5) never cut the margin under 7 after that. The Terrapins shot 20-for-27 (74 percent) from the floor in the second half after going 13-for-31 before halftime.

Gist, a 6-foot-9 senior forward, went 13-for-18 from the field and 3-for-4 at the line in topping his previous career high of 27. It was the most points scored by a Maryland player since Nik Caner-Medley had 30 against Temple in January 2006.

Vasquez tied the school single-game assists mark set by Terrell Stokes against Western Carolina in November 1998. Vasquez had 13 points and fell one rebound short of a triple-double.

Courtney Fells scored 16 and Gavin Grant 15 for the Wolfpack, who led by as many as 9 points in the first half. NC State is 2-6 on the road this season, including 1-5 in the ACC.

With the score tied at 38, Maryland's Bambale Osby made two straight layups and Landon Milbourne scored on a drive. Vasquez and Gist followed with layups, and Eric Hayes capped the 12-point blitz with a jumper.

Gist scored 18 points in the first half, but Grant tallied 13 to put the Wolfpack up 33-31 at the break.

Maryland coach Gary Williams was honored before the game for earning his 600th win on Wednesday at Boston College. He ranks eighth in victories among active coaches in NCAA Division-I basketball, and is the winningest coach in Maryland history.

Game #25

MARYLAND 65
#2/2 DUKE 77

Feb. 13, 2008 • Durham, N.C.
Cameron Indoor Stadium

DURHAM, N.C. - Kyle Singler scored 26 points and sparked the decisive run that helped the Blue Devils withstand Maryland's comeback attempt and beat the Terrapins on Wednesday night.

Greg Paulus added 20 points for the Blue Devils (22-1, 10-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who blew most of a 16-point lead but used a late 11-2 run to snap Maryland's four-game winning streak and claim a victory in a matchup of the league's hottest teams.

Duke protected its famous home court against a Maryland team that had enjoyed a measure of success here recently. Gary Williams' team entered having won two of its last three games at Cameron Indoor Stadium, including an 85-77 victory last March in which then-freshman Greivis Vasquez finished one rebound shy of a triple-double.

This time, Vasquez scored 25 points to lead the Terrapins (16-9, 6-4), who were denied a second victory on Tobacco Road this season after they went to nearby Chapel Hill and knocked off then-No. 1 North Carolina last month.

Singler started Duke's game-deciding run when, after Maryland closed within two points with less than 8 minutes left, he drove the left baseline for a layup to make it 59-55.

Two possessions later, he swished a 3-pointer from the left wing and later added a fast-break dunk, before Jon Scheyer's drive past Gist through the lane with 4:08 remaining gave the Blue Devils a 68-57 lead.

Bambale Osby added 13 points for Maryland, which led only in the opening moments, yet nearly escaped a 16-point second-half deficit with a 12-3 run, closing within two on James Gist's fast-break dunk that made it 57-55 with 8 minutes left.

FLORIDA STATE 72
MARYLAND 82

Feb. 16, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Greivis Vasquez had 20 points and eight assists, Landon Milbourne added a career-high 18 points and Maryland rallied in the second half to beat Florida State in an Atlantic Coast Conference game Saturday.

James Gist scored 17 points and Bambale Osby 14 for the Terrapins (17-9, 7-4 Atlantic Coast Conference). Despite a career-high 26 points from Ralph Mims, Florida State (14-12, 3-8) lost for the fifth time in six games.

Toney Douglas added 17 points for Florida State and Jason Rich had 12 points.

Coming off a 77-65 loss at No. 2 Duke on Wednesday, Maryland overcame an erratic first half to take control down the stretch, going 14-for-23 from the floor in the second half.

Vasquez sparked an 11-2 run that opened the second half and turned around an eight-point halftime deficit.

Vasquez knocked down three straight 3-pointers for a 43-42 Maryland lead with 17:55 left. Florida State kept it close before a 3-point play by Osby started a 10-2 Terrapin spree that wiped away the Seminoles' 57-56 lead, their final one of the game.

VIRGINIA TECH 69
MARYLAND 65

Feb. 20, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Greivis Vasquez led the Maryland Terrapins with 25 points, nine rebounds and five assists, but Virginia Tech rallied late to beat Maryland Wednesday night to end the Hokies' three-game losing streak.

The Hokies (15-11, 6-6 ACC) trailed by 14 in the first half and 47-37 with 11 minutes left, but ended the game with a 32-18 run to earn a rare win at Maryland and sweep the season series from the Terrapins (17-10, 7-5).

Jeff Allen had 14 points and 14 rebounds for Tech, while A.D. Vassallo scored 19 and Deron Washington had 12. The Hokies were coming off a 39-point loss at North Carolina and had not won at Maryland in five tries since 1951.

Bambale Osby had 18 points for Maryland, which dropped into a third-place tie with Clemson in the ACC.

Allen started the comeback with a basket that sparked an 8-point burst that got the Hokies to 47-45. It was 51-45 before successive baskets by Allen started another 8-point run that gave Virginia Tech its first lead.

Vasquez answered with a 3-pointer to put Maryland in front for the last time. Baskets by Allen, Hank Thorns and Vassallo followed, making it 61-54 with 1:27 to go.

As they did in their home win over Florida State on Saturday, the Terrapins got off to a fast start in the second half. It was 34-32 before Osby made a free throw, Landon Milbourne converted a steal into a layup and James Gist added two straight baskets to put Maryland up by 9.

Vasquez capped the run with a layup before Allen scored the Hokies' second basket of the half with 13:04 left. But, just when it seemed as if the Terrapins had taken control, Virginia Tech mounted its improbable comeback.

MIAMI 78

Feb. 23, 2008 • Coral Gables, Fla.
BankUnited Center

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Eric Hayes scored a game-high 14 points and Landon Milbourne and Greivis Vasquez each finished with 13 points, but it wasn't enough for the Maryland men's basketball team Saturday afternoon which lost to Miami.

Anthony King also scored 14 points for Miami which followed its victory Wednesday over No. 2 Duke with a key ACC win over the Terps (17-11, 7-6).

James Dews finished with 13 points, while Jack McClinton, Dwayne Collins, Jack McClinton and Brian Asbury each scored 12 for the Hurricanes (19-7, 6-6), who have won four straight.

McClinton's 3-pointer with 3:03 remaining increased Miami's lead to 66-58 and started a 15-3 run in the next 2:33.

After the Hurricanes started the second half 39-36 with five unanswered points in the first 1:57, the Terrapins responded with an 8-0 run and tied it, 44-44. Milbourne's two open 3-pointers from the right wing keyed the run. But the Terrapins second leading scorer James Gist, who averages 15.8 per game, committed his fourth foul with 15:44 remaining and was forced to sit the next 8:41.

Dews hit a jumper and scored on a fast-break layup as Miami scored five unanswered points during a two-minute run and helped Miami retake the lead 53-48 with 11:27 remaining in the second half.

King scored six points during a 10-0 Miami run early in the first half. McClinton's jumper with 14:16 remaining capped the spurt, increasing the Hurricanes lead, 15-6. The Terrapins countered with a 9-3 spurt, behind Bambale Osby's five points and Vasquez's two field goals, and reduced Miami's advantage 18-15 with 11:30 left in the half.

The Terrapins outscored Miami 14-6 to close the half as Gist scored six points and Hayes hit two 3-pointers.

MARYLAND 74
WAKE FOREST 70

Feb. 28, 2008 • Winston-Salem, N.C.
Joel Coliseum

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - James Gist scored a career-high 31 points and Maryland held off Wake Forest's late rally, beating the Demon Deacons on Thursday night.

Greivis Vasquez added 24 points and Gist had 11 rebounds for the Terrapins (18-11, 8-6 Atlantic Coast Conference), who nearly blew two 11-point leads but sealed it with three key defensive stops in the final 90 seconds.

Freshman James Johnson had 25 points and 14 rebounds for Wake Forest (16-10, 6-7), and his three-point play with 1:54 left pulled the Demon Deacons to 71-70.

Gist hit a free throw to push the lead to two, and Wake Forest didn't score again, coming up empty on its next three trips down the court. Johnson's pass was tipped and stolen by Gist, Ishmael Smith's go-ahead 3-pointer rattled in and out, and Harvey Hale's tying 3 bounced off the left iron.

The Demon Deacons never led in the second half but tied it for the first time since midway through the first on Johnson's follow-up dunk made it 49-all with 14:43 left.

That's when Vasquez took over, scoring the game's next seven points, converting a three-point play, putting back his own miss and hitting a turnaround shot in the lane to start a 19-8 run. Eric Hayes capped the burst when he swished a 25-foot 3-pointer to push the lead to 68-57 with about 9 minutes left.

Hayes added 11 points for Maryland, and Wake Forest's Chas McFarland scored 11 points before fouling out with about 3 minutes left.

CLEMSON 73
MARYLAND 70

March 2, 2008 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Terrence Oglesby nailed the tie-breaking 3-pointer with 2.3 seconds remaining in the game as Clemson came away with a victory over Maryland on Sunday night.

Clemson's (21-7, 9-5 ACC) James Mays scored 16 of his 20 points in the second half and grabbed nine rebounds for the Tigers, who had lost two straight to Maryland. Trevor Booker added 18 points and Oglesby had 12.

James Gist led the Terrapins (18-12, 8-7 ACC) with 15 points and eight rebounds. Vasquez had 13 points, eight rebounds and seven assists. Adrian Bowie and Eric Hayes scored 12 points each.

After a pair of Eric Hayes free throws gave Maryland a 68-55 lead, Mays tallied the final seven points of a 9-0 run. Mays converted a 3-point play with 3:00 left and capped the run with a slam after Oglesby had stolen the ball from Gist on the ensuing inbound play to make it 68-64.

Gist had 11 points in the opening 20 minutes and Maryland scored 13 unanswered points after Booker's two-handed slam with 11:03 left in the half. The Tigers failed to score for almost six minutes, turning the ball over six times in that span.

Clemson started 8-for-21 from the floor, committed 14 first-half turnovers and squandered an early 18-15 lead. The Terrapins closed the half on a 22-7 run for a 37-25 halftime lead.

VIRGINIA 91

March 9, 2008 • Charlottesville, Va.
John Paul Jones Arena

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. -- Sean Singletary scored 27 points in what was likely his final home game and Virginia beat Maryland Sunday night.

Singletary, honored with three other seniors beforehand, had his jersey retired and unveiled hanging from the ceiling. He finished in style, also added six rebounds and eight assists to help the postseason hopes of the Cavaliers (15-14, 5-11 Atlantic Coast Conference), and added his 2,000th career point on a layup with 2:28 remaining.

It gave Virginia an 82-73 lead and stopped a 5-point run by Maryland (18-13, 8-8).

Greivis Vasquez led Maryland with 16 points and nine assists, Adrian Bowie scored 15, Bambale Osby 14 and Milbourne 12.

Singletary also sparked the run that gave Virginia command, scoring on a layup with a 360-degree spin and then hitting two free throws to begin a 13-3 burst that gave Virginia a 51-44 lead with 15:40 to go.

Maryland closed to within 67-64 on Landon Milbourne's dunk with 7:16 to play, but Laurynas Mikalauskas hit a pair of free throws and Tucker scored, pushing the lead back to seven.

Tucker and Adrian Joseph added 13 each for Virginia, Diane had 12 and Mikalauskas and Calvin Baker each scored 11.

BOSTON COLLEGE 71
MARYLAND 68

March 13, 2008 • Charlotte, N.C.
ACC Tournament • Charlotte Bobcats Arena

CHARLOTTE, N.C. -Tyrese Rice scored 17 of his 19 points in the second half and Boston College snapped a six-game losing streak with a comeback win over Maryland on Thursday in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

Rakim Sanders, with 13 points, was one of four other players in double figures for the 11th-seeded Eagles (14-16), who rallied from an 11-point second-half deficit to advance to play third-seeded Clemson on Friday.

James Gist scored 19 points and the Terrapins (18-14) shot 52 percent but committed 21 turnovers.

The Eagles fell behind 20-5 and 36-25 to start the second half, only to come back behind their dynamic point guard and his young teammates.

Rice, who had been a one-man show for much of the season, hit two free throws in the closing seconds to send Maryland to its fifth loss in six games.

Maryland turned the ball over on five straight possessions and Josh Southern's half-hook with 3:55 left capped a 13-0 run to give Boston College a 60-50 lead.

Maryland then scored seven straight points with turnover-creating full-court pressure, but Southern broke the streak with a layup with 2:11 left. Rice's free throws ended another late comeback bid.

With Gist hitting four of his first five shots and recording consecutive steals, Maryland scored 13 straight points to build a 20-5 lead. The Eagles got within 31-25 at halftime.

Gist hit a 3-pointer and a jumper to start the second half, only to watch Rice lead the Eagles on a 17-3 run to take a 42-39 lead.

Game #33

MARYLAND 68
MINNESOTA 58

March 18, 2008 • Minneapolis, Minn.
NIT First Round • Williams Arena

MINNEAPOLIS -- Greivis Vasquez had 16 points and six rebounds in a victory over Minnesota on Tuesday night in the first round of the NIT.

Bambale Osby added 14 points and six boards for the fifth-seeded Terrapins (19-14), who advance to play top-seeded Syracuse at the Carrier Dome in the second round.

Damian Johnson had 14 points and 12 rebounds for fourth-seeded Minnesota (20-14).

Johnson also had four blocks and Lawrence Westbrook added 11 points, but the Gophers were out-muscled in the paint and out-hustled in transition in the final game of Tubby Smith's first season as coach here.

Maryland really got rolling during a six-minute span bridging the first and second halves. Maryland went on an 18-4 run, opening the second half with two soaring alley-oops to James Gist to take a 45-34 lead.

Blake Hoffarber, the clutch lefty who downed Indiana in the Big Ten tournament quarterfinals with his buzzer-beating turnaround, hit a 3-pointer with 4:19 to play that cut Maryland's lead to 58-53.

Gist, who finished with 11 points, came back with a big 3-pointer and Osby added a dunk to put the game out of reach.

Game #34

MARYLAND 72
SYRACUSE 88

March 20, 2008 • Syracuse, N.Y.
NIT Second Round • Carrier Dome

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - Jonny Flynn had 23 points to lead four Syracuse starters in double figures as the Orange advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT with a victory over Maryland Thursday night.

Arinze Onuaku added 14 points and 14 rebounds for Syracuse (21-13). Paul Harris added 19 points and Donte Greene tossed in 16.

Top-seeded Syracuse used a 15-5 spurt late in the second half to pull away from Maryland (19-15), which got 23 points and 11 rebounds from James Gist before he fouled out in the final minute and a career-high 21 from Bambale Osby.

The Terps, a fifth seed, pulled ahead of the Orange to start the second half on three consecutive baskets by Osby. When Osby converted a 3-point play with 13:26 to go he gave Maryland a 54-53 lead.

But Syracuse regained the lead for good with its spurt, taking a 68-59 lead on Flynn's basket with 8:52 to play.

Syracuse took a 40-38 halftime lead, withstanding an 18-point first half by Gist and Maryland's 60 percent shooting from the field. At one point, Gist scored 12 straight points for the Terps, who led by as many as eight points in the first half.

But Syracuse outscored Maryland 12-0 over a 2-1/2 minute span late in the half to seize the lead and build its own eight-point cushion. Back-to-back 3s by Greene and Flynn gave the Orange their first lead of the night, 32-30, with 4:42 to play.

Gary Williams with the Sears Trophy, presented annually to the NCAA Champion and No. 1 ranked team in the USA Today/ESPN coaches poll as sponsored by the NABC. Williams received the crystal trophy at a morning press conference following the national championship game, in downtown Atlanta.

No. 1 Terps!

Maryland has been ranked No. 2 a total of 37 times between the AP and Coaches Polls, but achieved its first and only No. 1 ranking in history on April 2, 2002 – one day after defeating Indiana for the 2002 NCAA Championship. The final AP poll was released prior to the NCAA Tournament, thus the No. 1 ranking by USA Today/ESPN remains the only poll in which Maryland has ever been ranked No. 1. The Terrapins' four losses in 2002 (Oklahoma, Duke, Arizona, NC State) were all on the road to teams ranked in the USA Today/ESPN final Top 25.

The USA Today/ESPN Coaches Final Top 25 college basketball coaches' poll, with number of first-place votes and record in parentheses, total points and previous ranking (Records through April 1, 2002):

All-Time Results

Game-by-game results for every Maryland basketball season since 1910-11. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College until 1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953-54; and the Southern Conference from 1923-24 to 1952-53.

An all-college basketball team was formed in 1904-05, and played just two games. Due to a fire in 1912 which burnt the armory and college gymnasium, the team that was fielded in 1913-14 did not have a regular home, practiced only three times all season and lost 16 games. Another team was not fielded until 1918-19.

In 1918-19, Maryland State participated in the District Intercollegiate Basketball League, in which all games were played at the Staunton YMCA. Another season would not be conducted until Maryland opened its new facility at The Gymnasium, inside Annapolis Hall, in 1923-24. It is considered to be the school's first "varsity" team.

Home games were played at The Gymnasium from 1923-24 to 1930-31. Home games were played at Ritchie Coliseum from 1931-32 to 1954-55. Home games from 1955-56 through 2001-02 were played at Cole Field House. Beginning in 2002-03, Maryland moved to Comcast Center.

Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls began in 1948-49. From 1960-61 to 1967-68, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

ACC Tournament Fast Facts

- The only time that four players on one team scored 20 or more points in an ACC Tournament game: John Lucas (24), Owen Brown (22), Mo Howard (20) and Tom McMillen (20) scored 86 of Maryland's 105 points in the Terps' 105-85 semifinal victory over North Carolina in 1974.
- The 2004 Maryland basketball team captured the ACC Title, winning the conference tournament for the third time in history and the first time since 1984. The Terrapins defeated No. 3 seed Wake Forest (87-86), No. 2 seed NC State (85-82) and No. 1 seed Duke (95-87 (OT) to mark the third time in ACC Tournament history that a team has knocked off the top three seeds.
- John Gilchrist was named the 2004 ACC Tournament MVP, becoming the first Terrapin to earn that distinction since Len Bias in 1984. He averaged 24.0 points, 6.3 assists, 5.3 rebounds and 2.0 steals across the three ACC tourney games, including a 30-point, seven-assist, four-rebound, four-steal performance in Maryland's comeback victory over NC State in the semifinal round.

Honored Jerseys

Maryland athletics honors the jersey numbers of 15 Terrapin greats. Along with the coach of the 2002 national champions, each is honored with a banner hung from the rafters of Comcast Center.

Bosey Berger

All-America
1931 • 1932

6

6-2, Forward
Fort Myer, Va.
Played: 1929-32

Louis "Bosey" Berger was regarded as one of the greatest athletes in the history of Maryland athletics ... a two-time All-America selection and a consensus pick in 1932... his selection is considered a great feat because Maryland was an agricultural school at the time and not among the athletic giants ... considered one of the best all-around players of his time ... led Maryland to the 1931 Southern Conference championship, averaging a conference-high 19.1 points over the nine-game conference season ... also played baseball and signed a professional contract with the Cleveland Indians upon graduation ... played in the major leagues for six years, with the Cleveland Indians, Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox ... left baseball with a .236 lifetime average.

Gene Shue

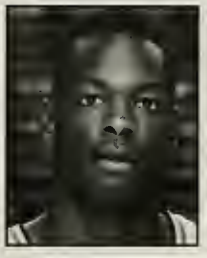
Len Bias

All-America
1985 • 1986



34

6-8, Forward
Landover, Md.
Played: 1983-86

Unanimous choice on almost every All-America squad following his senior season ... he was a third-team All-America selection in 1985, as a junior ... only Terp ever to be named the ACC Player of the Year twice (in 1985 and 1986) ... Bias is the Terps' second all-time leading scorer with 2,149 career points ... he holds two of the school's top four single-season marks ... led the ACC in scoring two straight years ... his best scoring performance, 41 points at Duke in 1986, ranks as the third-best single-game performance in school history and is the top performance by a Terp in a road game ... is No. 9 on the Maryland career rebounding list with 745 total rebounds ... is No. 9 on the school's career shot-blocked list with 87 ... he was the No. 2 pick overall in the 1986 National Basketball Association college draft, taken by the Boston Celtics.

Cole Field House

Its official name is the "William P. Cole Jr. Student Activities Building."

That is the name that can be read on the structure that still sits between the tennis courts and the university's student union, on the main thoroughfare of the campus of the University of Maryland, College Park. It is no longer, however, the home of Maryland basketball, as it was for 47 years since December of 1955.

Everyone just called it "Cole." Like Kentucky, where the Wildcats play at "Rupp." Or in Westwood, where UCLA plays at "Pauley."

The building is Cole Field House, even though that description appears nowhere officially. The nation's only on-campus arena to play host to multiple Final Fours, it has hosted numerous NCAA tournaments for basketball, volleyball and wrestling. It also hosted a U.S. vs. China ping-pong match in 1972 before a capacity crowd in what was the first sporting event held between the two nations; it hosted U.S. Presidents and, in September 1974, it even hosted Elvis.

Besides the all-black starting five of Texas Western taking the floor against Kentucky in the national championship game of 1966, Cole Field House was also home to the first black basketball players in the ACC — Maryland's Billy Jones (1966-68) and Pete Johnson (1967-69).

In 47 seasons, Terrapin teams were 486-151 at Cole Field House. A few of Cole's most memorable basketball moments:

Cole Was A House Of Horrors For No. 1 Teams

Cole Field House bears distinction as having hosted more upsets of No. 1-ranked teams than any building in the country.

When the No. 3-ranked Terrapins dispatched top-rated Duke on Feb. 27, 2002, it was Cole Field House's seventh game in which a No. 1 ranked team has fallen.

Including NCAA Tournament games, Notre Dame's Joyce Athletics & Convocation Center has hosted six No. 1 upsets and Oklahoma's Lloyd Noble Center has been the site of five.

At Cole, Maryland has beaten the nation's top team in six of those seven games. Also at Cole, No. 3-ranked Texas Western topped No. 1 Kentucky during the 1966 Final Four.

Cole Field House dedicated at a cost of $3.3 million. Maryland defeats Virginia, 67-55, on Dec. 2 in the first game in the new facility.

1958

Cole is home to the Atlantic Coast Conference champions and Maryland's first NCAA Tournament team.

1965

Bill Bradley scored 41 points in the NCAA East Region championship game as Princeton topped Providence, 109-69.

1966

Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four. In the semifinals, Kentucky defeats Duke and Texas Western (now Texas-El Paso) defeats Utah. Texas Western then defeats Kentucky in one of the most historic championship games in history.

1970

Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four for the second time. UCLA defeats Jacksonville for the title as Sidney Wicks outduals Artis Gilmore. It was the fourth of UCLA's seven consecutive NCAA championships.

Lefty Driesell was the architect of Maryland's great teams of the '70s and '80s.

1971

Maryland defeats No. 2 South Carolina, 31-30, in one of the great "slow-down" games in the history of Cole. Leading only 4-3 at halftime, Maryland needed a lay-up from Jim O'Brien to tie the game with five seconds to go in regulation and an 11-foot jumper from O'Brien to win the game with four seconds remaining in OT.

1972

Cole is home to the National Invitation Tournament champions – the Maryland Terrapins.

The Cole Field House single-game attendance record of 15,287 was set as Maryland played host to North Carolina on Feb. 16. Maryland won 79-77 in an overtime thriller.

1975

Cole was the site of the first women's basketball game ever to be televised.

1979

On Super Bowl Sunday, Larry Gibson sank a free throw with one second on the clock to boost the Terps past top-ranked Notre Dame, 67-66, on Jan. 27, 1979. Gibson scored 11 points that day while Ernest Graham scored 28 and Buck Williams grabbed 15 rebounds.

1984

Cole is home to the ACC champion Terrapins.

1991

In the NCAA Eastern Regional first round, 15th-seeded Richmond defeats No. 2 seed Syracuse, 73-69, in one of the great upsets in NCAA Tournament history. It was only the second time in the history of the tournament that a No. 15 seed had defeated a No. 2 seed.

1992

On Jan. 15, 1992, No. 3 Maryland hosted No. 2 Virginia in a women's basketball shootout before a sellout crowd of 14,500. The game still stands as the ACC attendance mark for a women's game.

Maryland defeats No. 10 North Carolina, 82-80, on a last-second tip-in by All-American Walt Williams Williams put the Terps up 81-80 with 1.3 seconds remaining to lead the Terps past the Tar Heels in Cole for only the second time since the 1982-83 season.

1994

Before a sellout crowd on March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia, 70-68, to clinch a fourth-place tie in the ACC standings and virtually assure its first NCAA Tournament bid under Gary Williams.

1995

Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 86-73, in front of a sellout crowd and a national television audience.

1998

Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 89-83 in overtime, as Laron Profit scores 19 points overall and six during an overtime period. It marks the second time in three years that the Terps beat No. 1 North Carolina in Cole.

1999

Maryland sets a school record with 28 wins on the season, and the Terps host a record 14,455 fans per game at Cole. Junior sensation Steve Francis is named an All-American and later chosen as the second pick in the NBA draft.

2001

Maryland defeats Virginia 102-67 in the final game of the regular season to mark the most lopsided win ever, in the longtime series against its ACC rival. One week later, the Terps advance to their eighth straight NCAA Tournament berth and bring back to College Park the first Final Four banner in school history.

2002

Maryland defeats top-ranked Duke before a national television audience, 87-73, to take over first place in the ACC and mark the seventh time in Cole history that a No. 1 ranked team has been defeated.

Maryland beats Virginia 112-92 to win its first ACC regular season title since 1980, in what is the final game at Cole. A standing-room only crowd witnesses an emotional postgame event with returning All-Americans commemorating Cole's final game, followed by a net-cutting ceremony to celebrate the Terps' league title.

The NCAA Champion Terrapins return to Cole before a crowd of over 12,000 adoring fans, just hours after winning the first national championship in school history.

Terps In The NBA Draft

Maryland's rising success under Gary Williams over the past 19 years has resulted in a growing number of Terrapin stars in the NBA ranks, and professionally overseas.

In the NBA specifically, the annual draft has become a barometer of Terrapin success, as Maryland has landed 16 players overall in the draft since Williams' return to College Park and 10 draft picks since 1999 alone.

During Williams' 30-year career as a head coach, an incredible total of 30 players have been NBA Draft choices. The most recent Williams' player in the draft was James Gist, a 2008 Terp graduate who was selected by the San Antonio Spurs in the second round.

In June of 2003, four-year point guard Steve Blake became the eighth Terp drafted over a five-year span with his selection in the second round by the Washington Wizards. In 2002, the Terps landed a pair of first-round picks and three selections overall, as Chris Wilcox (8th, Los Angeles Clippers), Juan Dixon (17th, Washington Wizards) and Lonny Baxter (44th, Chicago Bulls) all were chosen in draft proceedings at Madison Square Garden. Wilcox, chosen eighth overall, was Maryland's first lottery pick since Steve Francis three years earlier. When Dixon was made the 17th pick of the draft, Maryland had placed two players in the first round for the first time since 1981.

Buoyed by three first- and second-round draft picks during the 1999 and 2002 NBA drafts, Maryland and Gary Williams have asserted themselves in recent years among the most prominent schools in developing NBA talent.

In 1999, Steve Francis was chosen as the second pick of the first round, followed by second-round selections Obinna Ekezie and Laron Profit. One year later, Terence Morris was taken in the second round of the draft.

The Terps' NBA Draft tally since 1999: 10 draft picks, three first-round choices and two lottery selections.

What's more, Francis, the No. 2 pick in that '99 draft, went on to become the NBA's Co-Rookie of the Year. By the 2002 season, Francis was voted to the NBA All-Star Game.

Chosen on draft day by the Vancouver Grizzlies, Francis was traded in the preseason to the Houston Rockets for whom he led all NBA rookies with 6.6 steals in 1999-00, and was the second-leading rookie scorer with 18 points per game.

Had Francis been the No. 1 overall selection, Maryland would have become the first school in NBA history to have three No. 1 selections. Previously, John Lucas was the top pick by the Houston Rockets in 1976 and Joe Smith was picked first by the Golden State Warriors in 1995.

The Terps' 2002 draft windfall brought the number of all-time Maryland lottery selections to five — a number that is tied for 10th among all NCAA schools. Wilcox's selection brought the number of lottery selections at Maryland under head coach Gary Williams to four. Overall, seven Maryland players and nine overall since 1987 have played for Gary

THE UNIVERSITY
THIS IS
MARYLAND
BASKETBALL

University of Maryland

DEEP ROOTS
BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 86 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes four Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, more than 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

President C.D. Mote Jr.

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

Deborah A. Yow

Director of Athletics • 15th Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the 15th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 14-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 16 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She serves as the current President of the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation, as well as the Board of Directors of USA Football and the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee.

She has been honored by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, was cited in The Chronicle of Higher Education in October 2007 as one of the "Ten Most Powerful People in College Athletics/The Builder" and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television, including multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 14 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget now approaches $60 million annually and the $51 million debt which her administration inherited has been reduced to $7.6 million.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student-athletes at Maryland. Academic outcomes and student-athlete welfare have received consistent and focused attention.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The 18,000-seat Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable $250 million upgrade of athletic facilities.

Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal* Named Deborah A. Yow One Of The 20 Most Influential People In College Athletics.

Yow with several Terrapin student-athletes at the annual Welcome Back Picnic.

- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable seven national championships during the past three seasons.
- In the recent academic year, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics and had the highest graduation rate of any public institution in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Fundraising for Maryland athletics set a historic mark of $24.7 million in 2006-07.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report and Sports Illustrated as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the best-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Center for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 15 tournaments.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In the 2006 season, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps defeated Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl, and in 2007 was selected to play Oregon State in the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco. Graduation rates in football are exemplary and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center and led the ACC in season attendance.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the sixth-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of his first four seasons.
- Field hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.
- In women's lacrosse, hired Cathy Reese, who was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year in her first season as coach of the Terps.
- Men's soccer has appeared in four Final Fours in the past six years and won the NCAA National Championship.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Football Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- In 2006-07, 16 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 14 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she also brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's A.D.," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator and leader.

A successful former basketball coach, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University, a masters degree from Liberty University and a doctorate (honorus causa) from the U.S. Sports Academy and an honorary doctorate for career achievement from Elon University.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University – Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

Terrapin Club

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interested in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events

At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $8 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

Getting Involved

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

The M Club

An 85-Year Tradition of "Athletes Helping Athletes"℠

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization that is nationally recognized.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call the M Club office at (301) 314-2619, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

Remember the M Club, "Athletes Helping Athletes."

Major Gifts Fundraising

In the Fall of 2006, the University of Maryland publicly launched Great Expectations: The Campaign for Maryland, a $1 billion fundraising effort that will transform the University from excellence to greatness. Intercollegiate Athletics, one of the most visible units of the University will seek to raise a total of $133 million to: (1) enhance and improve competition, practice and training facilities for a number of our teams; (2) fund annual scholarships for student athletes; and (3) endow student-athlete scholarships, coaching positions and teams.

A centerpiece of the ambitious Great Expectations fund raising campaign is an enhancement to Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium, for which construction began in 2007. Phase one of this project, which is scheduled for completion for the 2009 season, includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse to add 64 luxury suites of varying sizes and 440 mezzanine seats (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a University suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game day operating staff; a new game-day merchandise outlet; and enhanced seating for disabled customers.

Phase two includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort, and chair back seating in the 200 level on the North side. The playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the lower rows, converting a number of those seats from obstructed view to some of the best views in the stadium. Additionally, all of the blue roofs in the stadium will be painted.

Future expansion for football facilities includes renovation of Gossett Football Team House to enlarge the locker room and training areas, as well as the transformation of the West End Zone with the addition of nearly 8,000 seats which will bring stadium capacity to approximately 60,000 seats.

This expansion plan is an ambitious one. Critical to its success is the leasing of all available Suites within the expanded Tyser Tower. You can support the proud tradition and future growth of Maryland Football by contributing to the Great Expectations campaign or leasing a luxury Suite at the stadium.

To obtain information on leasing a suite at Byrd Stadium, or any other component of the Great Expectations Campaign for Athletics, please contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, by email at terrapinclub@umd.edu, or visit www.GreatExpectationsAthletics.com

Academic Support & Career Development

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

Maryland Gameplan

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

Career Networking Night

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills™ PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

Academic Support For Returning Athletes Program

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

Official Medical Team

Sports Medicine

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Darryl Conway

Assistant AD/Sports Medicine
Delaware '93
Fifth Year at Maryland

Darryl Conway was hired in June 2004 as Maryland's assistant athletics director for sports medicine after spending three years as the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. Conway oversees all medical and athletic training operations for the Terrapins' 27 varsity athletic programs.

Conway has been an athletic trainer at both the collegiate and professional levels. At UCF he was the head trainer for the football squad, while supervising the assistant trainers, graduate assistants and student assistants who provide training coverage of Central Florida's 17 varsity sports. At UCF, Conway was responsible for overseeing the compilation and input of daily medical records, the computerized injury surveillance program and the NCAA injury surveillance system. He served as a clinical instructor/field experience supervisor for athletic training students, assisted in the development of marketing and fundraising projects for the sports medicine department and served as the site coordinator for the NCAA drug testing program at UCF.

Prior to his position at Central Florida, Conway served as the Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Northern Iowa, working as the head trainer for the Panthers' football and men's basketball teams from 1999 to 2001. He was the head athletic trainer at Morgan State University in Baltimore for one season and was an assistant trainer and professor at Delaware, his alma mater, for two years. From 1993 to 1996, Conway was an assistant trainer with the NFL's New York Jets.

Conway earned a bachelor's degree in physical education studies, magna cum laude, from the University of Delaware in 1993, before receiving a master's degree in physical education and a certificate in sports management from Adelphi University two years later.

Conway has taught numerous collegiate courses related to athletic training, has made numerous presentations and has co-authored several scholarly publications and book chapters. He has been a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) since 1989, and is also a member of the United States Weightlifting Federation.

Conway and his wife, Tracy, have a son, Michael.

Craig Bennett, M.D.

Orthopaedic Surgeon
Fifth Year at Maryland

Craig H. Bennett, M.D., is in his fifth season as the head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for Maryland. Dr. Bennett is the Chief of Orthopaedic Sports Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine and has also served as the head orthopaedic surgeon for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. Prior to his arrival at Maryland, Dr. Bennett was at the University of Pittsburgh where he served as an assistant professor of orthopaedics, as a team physician for Pittsburgh's athletic department and as the associate team physician for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Dr. Bennett graduated with honors from Brown University in 1985. He earned his medical degree from the University of California at San Francisco and completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He then completed a sports medicine-knee and shoulder fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh and subsequently stayed on staff at Pittsburgh for five years. While at Pittsburgh, he also served as the team physician for the men's basketball team.

Dr. Bennett was selected to the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Leadership Fellows Program in 2003-04 and Towson University honored him as their African-American Scholar of the Year in 2004. He is a board certified member of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and a member of the NFL Team Physicians Association.

James Dreese, M.D.

Team Physician/
Orthopaedic Surgeon
Third Year at Maryland

Dr. James Dreese serves as assistant team physician for University of Maryland athletic teams. He is an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics at the University of Maryland Medical Center. He received his undergraduate degree from Penn State University, where he competed on the football team and earned a varsity letter.

After completing his Orthopaedic Surgery residency at the renowned Hospital for Special Surgery in New York, NY he received subspecialty training in Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh, Pa. He served as a team physician at Davidson University in Charlotte, N.C., prior to joining the Orthopaedic Surgery staff at the University of Maryland.

Dr. Dreese is s subspecialist in the management of shoulder, knee, and elbow injuries.

Yvette Rooks, M.D.

Head Team Physician/
Primary Care Physician
10th Year at Maryland

Yvette Rooks M.D., is in her 11th year as a primary care physician for Maryland's athletics programs. She is also an Assistant Professor and Residency Program Director in the Department of Family and Community Medicine at the University Of Maryland School Of Medicine.

Dr. Rooks received her doctorate of medicine from the State University of New York at Syracuse in 1993. She completed her Family Medicine Residency at the University of Maryland Department of Family and Community Medicine in 1996. She served as Chief Resident from 1995-96.

At the conclusion of her residency Dr. Rooks pursued additional training in the field of sports medicine and completed a fellowship in this area at Keman Orthopedic Hospital of the University Maryland Medical System in 1998. Dr. Rooks is Board certified in Family Medicine and has a Certificate of Added Qualification, CAQ, in Sports Medicine.

Dr. Rooks has been a faculty member in the Department of Family and Community Medicine for 11 years. She served as Chair of the Clinical Years Curriculum Committee, which oversees the curriculum for the clinical years of medical training at the University of Maryland Medical School from 2002-2007. She was the Director of Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship from July 2005 until January 2008 and has served as the Head Primary Care Team Physician for the University of Maryland at College Park-Terrapins since 1998.

Dr. Rooks was recently appointed to the NCAA Committee on Competitive Safeguards and Medical Aspects of Sports and is the President –Elect for the Maryland Academy of Family Medicine.

She lives Ellicott City with her daughter Madison.

Brian Corwell, M.D.

Team Physician/

Valerie E. Cothran, M.D., is in her first year as primary care team physician at the University of Maryland. Dr. Cothran is an assistant professor in the Department of Family and Community Medicine and serves as Program Director of the Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship at the University of Maryland. She received her medical degree from Wake Forest University and completed her residency at the University of Kentucky in Lexington, Ky. She also completed a fellowship in sports medicine at University of Kentucky Medical Center. Dr. Cothran is an alumnus of the University of Maryland and was a four-year letterwinner in track & field.

Strength and Conditioning

In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Paul Ricci, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Paul Ricci

Ricci's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Gary Williams' trademark. Ricci trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Williams' style.

The Terps' new state-of-the-art weight room at Comcast Center.

The members of the men's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the men's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sqare foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.

Terrapin Sports Radio Network

All of Maryland's games will be broadcast live on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network, which boasts one of the strongest coverage areas in college sports. Terrapin Sports Marketing, a division of CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, manages the Terrapin Sports Radio Network. In its seventh year as the multi-media marketing rights partner for University of Maryland Athletics, Terrapin Sports Marketing has built a stronger network that provides coverage in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, and Washington D.C.

Live 105.7 FM (WHFS) and ESPN Radio 1300 AM (WJFK-AM) in Baltimore serve as network's flagship stations, with many more affiliates across the state picking up the games.

Maryland's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet via the Terps' official athletics website, www.umterps.com.

Johnny Holliday

Play-by-Play Announcer
30th Year

One of Washington's most versatile broadcasters, Johnny Holliday, is now in his 30th season as play-by-play voice of the University of Maryland. Holliday has broadcasted more than 1,100 Terrapin football and basketball games, including 11 bowl games, 10 Sweet 16 and two Final Four appearances, including Maryland's national championship victory over Indiana in 2002.

Holliday's sports reports are heard mornings coast-to-coast on the ABC Radio Network, as well as on XM and Sirius. Dick Vitale has named Holliday one of his "top 15 play-by-play voices in the nation." Holliday's list of credits includes ABC's coverage of the Winter and Summer Olympic Games, championship boxing, the USFL with hall of fame member Paul Hornung, The Masters and television coverage of the Liberty and Aloha Bowls. Holliday also co-hosts the Ralph Friedgen and Gary Williams shows on both radio and television. Holliday was public address announcer for the Cleveland Browns, Oakland Raiders, San Francisco Warriors and the Washington Bullets.

In Washington, Holliday hosted the Washington Senators pregame show on the radio with Ted Williams and in San Francisco the Giants pregame show on television. He also handled play-by-play duties for George Washington University basketball, Navy football radio and television coverage of the Washington Bullets and Wizards and hosted a Redskins television show with Dexter Manley, Mark Moseley, Bobby Beathard and Charley Casserly. Holliday also handled television play-by-play duties of ACC Women's basketball, Baltimore Orioles and national gymnastics events.

Holliday has been honored by Washingtonian Magazine as "Washingtonian of the Year". His basketball and softball teams have raised in excess of $1.5 million for charity. Holliday has been honored by the University of Maryland with the school's Distinguished Citizen award, and by the Touchdown Club of Washington with the outstanding achievement in Spor ts Broadcasting "Timmie" award.

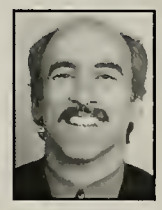
Holliday was inducted into the Radio Television Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2003. In 2005, he was given the Lindsay Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster award by the All-American Football Foundation, and in 2006 was honored by the National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame with the Chris Schenkel Award. In 2006 the Catholic Youth Organization named Holliday its National Person of the Year, and the Diabetes Association recognized him as its Father of the Year. Holliday last year was inducted into the Baltimore Sports Media Hall of Fame.

Holliday also received the "Smile" award from Operation Smile for outstanding service to the community. Holliday still finds the time to participate in a variety of community activities, among them, Catholic Charities, Special Olympics and The Youth Leadership Foundation. Holliday is on the Board of Directors of Victory Youth Centers and Children's Charities Foundation. Holliday has served as television host for Muscular Dystrophy, Leukemia, Cerebral Palsy, Children's Hospital, March of Dimes and Easter Seals telethons.

His network credits include announcing duties for NBC's "Hullaballoo" and "The Roger Miller Show," ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley" and "This Week with Sam and Cokie", along with ABC radio's Sam Donaldson Show. Holliday was also seen on the CBS television series "Good Morning World." His face and voice are one of the most familiar in all of Washington radio and television with hundreds of commercials and narrations to his credits.

Holliday was born and raised in Miami, Fla. Before coming to Washington in 1969 he was a top-rated radio personality in Cleveland, New York City and San Francisco. Before giving up music, Holliday was named America's number one disc jockey. A visit to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland will enable you to listen to Holliday during DJ days in Cleveland. Holliday also co-hosts "Catholic Radio Weekly" with Carol Lehan, syndicated radio stations throughout the country.

Holliday and his wife Mary Clare are the proud parents of three daughters, Kellie, Tracie and Maria, three son-in-laws, Steve, Chris and Bob, seven grandsons, J.T., Devin, Anthony, Christopher, Nicholas, Jack and Liam, and one granddaughter Maggie.



Chris Knoche

Color Analyst
10th Year

Chris Knoche, a former player and head coach at American University who has worked in radio and television for the past eight years, is in his 10th season as the color analyst for the Terp men's basketball radio broadcasts.

Knoche spent 17 seasons at American, playing the 1979-80 and '80-81 seasons under current Terp coach Gary Williams before moving into an assistant coaching position and later serving seven seasons (1991-97) as the Eagles' head coach.

Prior to joining Maryland's broadcast crew, he worked 40-50 games each of the previous two seasons as a color commentator, including stints on the Ivy League Game of the Week on Westwood One/CBS Radio and Ivy League Game of the Week for DirecTV and for HDTV. He has also worked telecasts for ESPN and CSN, in addition to doing radio and television analysis for George Mason University games. Currently he makes regular guest appearances on the highly rated "The Sports Reporters" on Sports Talk 980 in Washington, D.C.

"Chris Knoche brings an outstanding background as a player, coach and fan to our basketball broadcasts," said Williams, the Terps' 20th-year head coach. "Being able to work with Johnny Holliday, Chris provides the opportunity for Maryland fans to listen to someone who has very good experience as a color commentator. More important, he is someone who has a great feel for the game of basketball. I have known Chris as a player and a coach for more than 20 years. He has been an exciting addition to our basketball program."

Media Credentials Policy

The University of Maryland issues media credentials under the priorities listed below. These priorities are designed to achieve efficient use of limited space available for working members of the media at University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic events.

The University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office is responsible for administering this policy. Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at UMTerps.com no later than five days prior to an event. For more information, contact Associate Athletics Director-Media Relations Doug Dull at 301-314-7064 or at ddull@umd.edu.

Priorities

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
5. Official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
6. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
7. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline 7, below.

Guidelines

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this policy, all passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation upon University request.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets." The University of Maryland will not issue credentials to organizations whose primary function is to deliver news related to the recruitment of student-athletes.
6. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18. Admission to media facilities are for working media only.
7. Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and employs for that University of Maryland-dedicated website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site, and that registers a minimum of 20,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months.

   An online entity that meets the requirements of either 7.a) or 7.b) and which sponsors message boards or chat rooms may be credentialed only if the entity enforces its policies regarding abusive or discriminatory material.
8. University personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding University athletic events; violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request the Media Relations Office provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations, in consultation with appropriate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.
9. The University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office reserves the right to change this policy at any time. The latest version will be available online at www.umterps.com.

Credential Requests

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at http://www.sportssystems.com/clients/maryland/ no later than five days prior to an event. Credential requests can also be made on official letterhead from a sports editor or sports director and sent to Doug Dull, Athletics Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20741. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094 or e-mailed to ddull@umd.edu. No credential requests will be accepted by phone.

Credentials will be mailed whenever possible, picked up at the Athletics Media Relations Office or picked up on game day at Media Will Call at the South Gate of Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium. Credentials will be sent via overnight entities (FedEx, UPS, U.S. Postal Service) only at the expense of the requesting outlet.

All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification.

Internet Guidelines

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of the University of Maryland's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an outlet's agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Maryland may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Maryland may result in revocation of press credentials. Maryland reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet ("real time" is defined

Game Day Media Parking

Parking is located to the north of Comcast Center – in lots P1 and P2. Media parking is best accessed from the University Drive (Rt. 193) entrance to campus at Paint Branch Drive. Access to the media parking area is parking pass only, and is available on a limited basis.

For lots P1 and P2, after entering campus on Paint Branch Drive, take the first right at Terrapin Trail, and proceed approximately 100 yards to the media parking area on the right.

Photography Regulations

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for all games. Photographer and videographer positions are at the complete and absolute discretion of the basketball game officials and the Maryland Media Relations Office at all times, without exception.

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in photography areas. Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas.

Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made through the Media Relations Office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Media Seating and Media Work Room

The courtside media area and work room both are at the northeast corner of the arena. Both are available for working media only.

Working space in the media area of Comcast Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the media area.

Located on the court level of Comcast Center, the work room is directly across from the men's basketball locker room and directly behind the courtside area. They are connected by the tunnel area adjacent to the loading dock and service entrance on the arena's northeast corner.

A limited number of long distance phone lines are available in the work room on a first-come, first-served basis, and require a credit card for billing. Dedicated phone lines in the courtside area are available by placing an advance order with Nick Morrow, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-9729.

The work room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome upon arrival at the arena. A pregame food service is served buffet style. A halftime beverage service is also available. The pregame buffet is available one hour before tipoff.

Telephones

Six complimentary phone lines are available in the Comcast Center media work room, as dictated by ACC policy (calling card or reverse charges required). Additional requests for dedicated lines, either for the work room or courtside, should be directed to Nick Morrow, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-7027. List Doug Dull as the contact person for all installations.

Postgame News Conference

Postgame news conferences for both head coaches will be conducted at the conclusion of each game.

The Maryland locker room is open to credentialed media for a brief period after Coach Williams concludes his comments to the media. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

Postgame Statistics

A statistics packet including running play-by-play, first half and final box scores, and postgame notes and home and visitor head coach quotes, are compiled for each game and made available to the media at press row and in the media work room.

E-Mail Services

Basketball releases may be obtained electronically by contacting Doug Dull at ddull@umd.edu.

In-Season Interview Policies

Maryland players and head coach Gary Williams will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. All interview requests must be made through the media relations office, contacting Doug Dull. Please give 24 hours notice.

Players' individual phone numbers and/or e-mail addresses will not be given to the media. Players will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

Weekly Teleconference

The 12 ACC head basketball coaches will be featured on nine Monday teleconferences during the 2008-09 season.
